

CORRESPONDENCE.

ROCKY SAUGEEN.

Rev. Mr. Little and Rev. Mr. Thom exchanged pulpits on Sunday last. Mr. T. Rogers, evangelist, accompanied Mr. Thom and preached the sermon.

Sacramento at Dornoch, Mr. Little's charge, next Sunday, at Rocky Saugeen the Sunday following. Preparatory services on Friday at 2.30, Saturday at 11. Gaelic service after the English service on Saturday. Rev. Isaac McDonald Glams will conduct the Gaelic service.

Miss Mary McCracken who has been in Toronto for some years came home last Friday on a holiday visit.

Miss Maysie Williams who has been spending a few weeks at the home of her father, Councillor Williams, left for Owen Sound last week, accompanied by Mr. Raynor.

Mr. C. C. McFayden who, for the past few weeks has been summering at Paisley, Port Elgin, Underwood &c., came home this week looking well, and having been most magnificently treated having attended several picnics, and appeared on the platform in company with the Grand Chief, Sons of Scotland and other important personages.

ROB ROY.

Mr. Editor, owing to dull times around the Corners at present there is not much news. However, few are always better than none.

We are glad to hear that Miss Mary Brown, who was sick is able to be around again.

Miss Mary Firth, of Toronto, is at present visiting at her home west of the Corners.

Miss Alice Hunter, who was visiting her brother, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, has returned home. Her friends are glad to see her back again.

Quite a number from our school are attending the Exams in your town this week.

It is our opinion that one of Murdoch's familiar young men has serious intentions of entering into partnership with one of the grocers of your town by what we saw on Jubilee Day. Groceries are good, Jim, but don't you think the Grocer would be better?

VARNEY.

Mr. Wm. McCalmum, of Mt. Forest, took a trip home on a like Sunday afternoon last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Dickson, of Glen Eden were visiting at Mrs. D. Allan's on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall were the guests of Mr. C. Gaid last Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Rodgers, of Toronto, preached a very excellent sermon in our Church on Sunday last.

Mr. Isaac Wilkinson is residing in his house which adds much to the appearance of it. Mr. R. Eden is doing the work.

The Annual picnic of the Varney Sunday School was held in Mr. John Aldred's orchard on the 6th of July. There was a good time as was expected.

Mr. Adam Little purchased a fine driver from Mr. T. Caldwell.

Miss Hattie Eden intends going to Hamilton on Thursday where she intends to remain for some time.

We would like to know why Archie didn't plant a grape vine instead of a wild jay and why L. didn't let the first fellow go.

JUBILEE WEEK AT HOPEVILLE.

Intended for last week.

Monday 21st.—Mr. Alexander Gills, one of our first young men who was raised in this neighborhood, but has lately been living in Buffalo, returned here and was a welcome visitor. We expect to hear more from him soon.

The McArthur family went to Mount Forest to have their photograph taken in Scotch dress.

Mr. Thomas Parslow who lives 1 1/2 miles north of here was visiting friends in Egremont and when returning home by Sack's Corners a dog ran out of a house and frightened his horse so that it ran away. Mr. Parslow was thrown out of his buggy and very badly hurt. He was not able to be taken home.

Tuesday, 22nd.—This notable day was bright and clear and as we were early in the morning we beheld Union Jacks flying from McArdle's residence and the Grange Hall and not long after we ran the largest one in the village on the trolley pole at Mr. W. W. Hall's and was followed by McArthur boys having one out. Quite a number went to Dundalk to spend the day there.

The United Protestant Benevolent Society members held a meeting in the Hall in the evening and in the evening David McNeil Esq., M. P. P., arrived from Dundalk.

Wednesday 23rd.—Mr. McNeil in our town and visited quite a few of his friends. Mr. David Buchanan, Presbyterian Student, who formerly labored here, arrived on a visit. There is quite an attraction here for our young student.

Charles McDonald left for Bark's Falls to stay for the summer.

A. J. Burnett started for his farm in Glaneg with a gang of men to build straight fences on it.

Thursday 24th.—This is a very busy day delivering cattle and pigs. Mr. Andrew McAulley, of Fisherton, was gathering up his stock and a large number of cattle and hogs were taken to Dundalk for shipment. There has been a lot of cattle left here this spring.

Friday the 25th.—Mr. David Buchanan bid good-bye to his people here and to the one that was dear to him and left.

Norman McAlley left for Melancthon to help his father with some work and his partner, J. McDonald, went away to build fences in the Fish Settlement.

Saturday, 26th.—G. McArthur arrived home from a trip around Mr. Forest with some fancy horses for sale.
