LOCAL AND GENERAL

3 inches of rain fell Tuesday. To LET .- A house in Lower Town, Apply to J. M. HUNTER.

Mrs. C. McDougall has brightened up the outside of Mr. Afian McKinnon's house east of town.

Peerless Machine Oil "an oil that oils to be had of best quality at M. Kress tinsmith shop, Upper Town.

Sorry to hear that Mr. Wm. Derby, South Line, Bentinck, is laid up at present with a rheumatic affection. We hope he may soon be in shape for work again in the busy time coming.

ICE FOR SALE.-In any quantity, Apply to JNO, A. BLACK.

The first tandem seen in our good town was brought here last week by Lime Fruit Juice, the Messrs Allan, of Toronto, sons of the wholesale furriers there, who wheeled up on a visit to Mrs. Sutherland, an old time neighbor.

Run In.—A week ago Sunday night Hood's Sarsaparilla, Cure all liver ills.

Chief Carson discovered three tramps 25 cents. preparing to spend the night in the cars at the station. Very wisely he gave them lodgings in the lock up out of harm's way. They profess to come from Toronto.

Bruder twine at 6 to 71 cents per lb. at W. Calder's warehouse.

MR, JOHN HUGHES .- Our obituary column today contains notice of the death of this gentleman. He was uncle to the Hughes family of our town, and being their father's only surviving brother in this country they were very much attached. His relatives here attended his funeral on Tuesday to the Hanover cemetery where amidst the respect of the community he was laid to rest. His wife, four sons and three daughters survive him. DURHAM

DOMINION DAY IN DRYDEN.-Letters from the Bentinck colony show that they are pleased with their venture and crops are preased with their venture and crops are promising. They celebrated our national holiday by a programme of sports, and in a tug of war between Dryden and Wabagoon, the former was victorious, Mr. Geo, A. Turnbull being on the winning side. Mr. Charter Smith is on a visit there at present and speaks highly of the crops, but a little distance away the ground is somewhat baked. and this has retarded growth.

The game from start to finish was fast and furious, but after 23 minutes play, Patterson scored first for Durham After this game the pace was faster than ever and in 5 minutes Markdale had evened matters up, Mathers scoring. The next game was noted for the brilliant pass work of our boys who for the next 20 minutes kept the Markdale de-fence hustling, and by pretty combination work the ball reached Carson who passed to Munroe who scored. The enthusiasm of our boys knew no bounds and in the following 12 minutes although Markdale made great efforts to score it was no go, our defense was invincible. When time was called the score stood 2-1 favor of Dutham. Harry Ross put
