GLASCOTT.

Fine growthy werather at the time of writing (Friday 16th inst.) after the ex: cessive beat of last week.

A beautiful rain fell on Toursday evening which means considerable to the growth of the grain and root crop at this season of the year. Hay cutting and hoe ing turnips are the order of the day a present.

The hay crop is good and the grain crop is promising well at present, which has the effect of making the industrious farmer wear a more pleasant smile than in the past two years.

Our burgh came nearly being forsaken ast Monday as nearly all were up bright and early preparing for to go and witness the great demonstration being held in Markdale, of the battle of the Boyne. As your worthy scribe was present we would judge from attendance that the record has been broken from any former gather-

Mr and Mrs. Joseph Smith, from near Meaford have been visiting a few days this week with Mrs. S's. aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. John English. The old couple are becoming quite frail being now over 80 years of age.

Mr. John Ritchie, of Port Arthur, called on friends here this week on his way to visit his mother at Edge Hill, who is, we anderstand, quite ill and has been thus for a length of time.

A cheese factory is being agitated here lately and no doubt will be built this fall and got in readiness for next spring by Mr. Robt. Winlow, who is a hustler.

Mr. Wm, Malone is being treated this last month for a cacner on the lip and is thereby suffering consi 'erable. We trust the cure may have the desired effect.

Mrs. Wm. Williamosn has been indiposed now for a length of time, but is, we understand, on the mend,

Mr. Thos. J. Brodie is home from Owen Sound where he has been attening the High School and at the late examination wrote for a third class certificate.

The roads are being considerably im: proved lately by statute labor and also the town line by commissioners Lamb and Williams, of Glenelg, and Hampton and McKinnet, of Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carter, of Minne: sots, U. S., formerly of Townsend's Lage, ofter an ab-ence of fourteen years are We are pleased to meet triend Carter will get over it quickly. Tom is a hard

GLENELG CENTRE.

Mr. Editor, it is difficult to collect news at present, but a few items will keep the Centre in our memory.

Miss Maggie McInnis in company with Mr. C. McLean, both of Priceville, were visiting here at the Centre Sunday of The Edge Hill picnic which was held on Friday 9th, was a genuine success. The music was furnished by the Mc-Donald Bros, of Priceville and Mr. Arsigned by himself and seven others soliciting aid to improve the road at the north rowsmith, of Pomona. The hot weather of the past week or two has brought quite a number of visitors to our locality all of whom are seeking the cool breezes of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. May, of Collingwood are labor be done in Road Division No. 5., con. spending a few days with their cousins 21 and 22 instead of the townline as at the Greenwoods. Mr. May is a shrewd observer of nature and he stated that in all his travels this year he did not see any crops to equal those of Zion, 'Why you will never get all that hay off 'he says 'and the oats I never saw anything

Mrs. Blair also has visitors in the person of her sister and part of her family, Miss Smith, from Toronto, and Miss Jenny Smith from Brooklands, are staying for a few days at their old home.
