The question of "reasonableness" came up, and it was pointed out by the prosecution that four judges of the Court of Appeal had held this regulation to be reasonable.

WELCOME HOME.-Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McArthur came home Monday evening after a brief honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points. We extend a hearty welcome to our new neighbors, and we are sure we voice the sentiment of the whole town when we wish them many happy years amongst us. Both are well and widely known, the families of both being pioneers in the district, and always highly respected.

A SERENADE.-Last Tuesday night the Battalion Band very gallantly appeared at Mr. C. Mr. and Mis. Mc-Arthur added very generously to the funds of the band, and Prof. Peel made a neat little congratulatory speech on behalf of his comrades.

THE CAMPBELL LETTERS.—Our many letter from Mr. Campbell on 1st page. Black for the past few weeks, We have reason to believe they are being read with great interest, and Mr. C. has laid the REVIEW Editor and RE-VIEW readers under an obligation for very interesting communications. Mr. Campbell and party since writing this have been to Antwerp and Brussels. He was delighted with the former place, where they had a warm reception from a friend of Rey.
