The Durham Review.

Durham, Thur. Sept. 9, '97.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Going fast. The new Presbyterian Book of Praise. From 8 cents up. Mc-Farlane & Co.

Mr. A. Galbraith, teacher in Aberdeen School, has been engaged for 1898 at an advance in salary. Thus is merit rewarded.

Rev. Mr. McGregor and Rev. Mr.
Jansen will exchange pulpits on Sunday morning. This generous spirit is always pleasing.

J. A. Hunter carries the largest stock of Readymade clothing in South Grey.
Call and get his prices.

STACKS.—A drive through the country shows stacks of grain, waiting for the thresher, something that has been seen but seldom in two years.

NO. 1. NORMANBY.—Mr. Jno. Kerr and his pupils intend giving an entertainment on Friday evening first. A fine program is arranged.

GLORIOUS WEATHER.—We must take space to congratulate farmers on the splendid weather of the past week.
It has been well used no doubt, and empty space in barns is now at a premium.

Mr. Allan has been appointed captain of the Boys' Brigade, an institution calculated to do good work for the youth of the town. Mr. A. Galbraith is Drill Instructor, and under these officers and the direction of the W. C. T. U. good results are sure to follow.

Buy a quart of Alligator Harness Oil for 20c at J. A. Hunter's. It is a good thing.

FLOWERS.—We give considerable space this week to the first Horticultural Exhibition believing that a great deal can be done by this means to cultivate a refined taste in the community. The organization and seed distribution of the society has been justified.

POLES MOVING.—Mr. E. Hartford on Friday last shipped his 41st carload of poles this season from Durham station, and will have as many more. He has also an extensive pole and lumber business at Waterloo, and between the two places turns over a lot of money.

Mr. A. McFarlane last Thursday had an elegant grave stone erected to the memory of his two sons. It is of the kind known as dark Pearl Swede Granite, from Aberdeen. It was secured from the firm of Cochrane & Johnston, Brussels, through their Agent here Mr.
R. Torry. Parties wishing to see designs and samples of material should call on Mr. Torry.

Inspector Thomas Harris, of Durham paid the institutions, over which he has supervision, an official visit on Monday —not to chide them for any infraction of the License Act, however, but to whisper to them a prohibitory warning note and now a poor thirsty soul must go dry or slake that thirst with nothing more more exhilarating than Adam's ale.—Ayton Advance.

IN MEMORIAM.—Our obituary column to-day records the death of Mrs. Thos.
Caldwell, of Orchardville. This highly esteemed lady was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Smith of this town and her removal in the prime of life is a serious affliction to the surviving relatives. For several months, lately staying at her father's where she had devoted nursing, she struggled with the disease, but death brought a happy release on Monday last. She was interred in Maplewood Cemetery on Tuesday many touching evidences of respect and esteem being shown at the house and the grave by Durham and Orchardville friends.
Rev. Mr. Isaac Holstein, conducted appropriate services. Her husband and a son 7 years old remain to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother.

MAKE THE MOST OF YOURSELF.—It is the duty of every man to make the most of himself. Whatever his capacity may be, he is sure to find some place where he can be useful to himself and to others.
But he cannot reach his highest usefulness without good health and he cannot have good health without pure blood.
The blood circulates to every organ and tissue and when it is pure, rich and healthy it carries health to the entire system, but if it is impure it scatters disease wherever it flows. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood purifier.
It cures salt rheum, scrofula, catarrh, dyspepsia and rheumatism because these diseases have their origin in the blood.

See J. A. Hunter's noble stock of Gen's suiting in suit ends. They are the latest shades.

CAUSE OF BALDNESS.—Dr. Black, of Paisley, well known here, has contributed an article to a Detroit Journal on this topic, and an exchange referring to it says:—"His idea seems reasonable enough. It is to the effect that the tight hat band, pressing against the flow of the head, checks the flow of blood to the scalp and impoverishes it, causing the hair to fall out. The idea was suggested by an experience which Mr. J. B. Campbell, of Pinkerton, had fitting up a horse for show purposes.
He had braided up the tail, and in order to keep it in place, had put on a rubber band. This remained some time, and after its removal the hair on the tail below where it had been placed fell out."

SCOTTISH GAMES AT DURHAM.

The glory of a nation is, in all cases characterized by her music, sports and pastimes, and these elements are conducive, to her sons, of heroic inspiration and personal prowess which is simply a development of sublime patriotism.

Scotland stands prominent among all nations of the earth in that respect.

These facts will be indorsed in earnest when the notable concourse of Scottish champions, namely: Gideon Perrie, champion heavyweight athlete of the world; Walter F. Scott, champion all round athlete of America and other contestants in the large number of events to be competed for at the Caledonian Games at Durham Agricultural Park on Wednesday, Sept. 15th.

age will be the highland dancing contests and amongst the most renowned competitors in these events will be William Johnston the champion dancer of America.

Amongst the competitors in the Bagpipe contests, will be included Farquhar Benton, winner of the World's Fair champion gold medal in Chicago in '93.

Everybody should come on the 15th and witness some of the greatest Caledonian features that will ever be seen in this country. See Bills and programs.

LACROSSE.

For the past week a mild excitement has pervaded the town springing from the contests with the Hanover team, promised and performed.

The Durham club has had unwavering success this year, and last Friday were prepared to do battle once more, and for the first time this season invited the public at a small charge to witness the contest. A contest that never came off.
Why? While our boys will face anything that stands in leather, from Hanover they draw the line at imported "ringers." The visitors were met near the cemetery by two young men from Owen Sound, who had strangely missed the good town. They exchanged places with two from Hanover rig and all came to town, ready, thus reinforced, to face the foe.

On the accidental discovery of this little game our boys promptly and very properly demanded the exclusion of the Owen Sounders. This being refused, after some wrangling the crowd left disgusted, and the ball was never faced.
Honour MATRICATION

On Monday however a request was sent over by Hanover to allow a match, they promising to have no outsider but a Fergus player. The request was granted and at 4 p. m. a game was entered upon, witnessed by a respectable sized crowd, which gave the victory to Hanover by 3 to 2.

W. Harris, of Durham team got a knock-down blow on the forehead, not a knock out, however, as his playing in a few minutes showed.

The boys threw the gates open the second match owing to the first failure.

CALDWELL.—In Durham, at her 6ther's residence, on Monday, Sept. 6th, Est. Mrs. Caldwell, aged 33 years and 4 months.

Clark's Horse Review, from which we reproduce the illustration, prints the following pair of heads. They are the heads of the two beautiful trotting mares Nightingale and Alix. Nightingale, the milder looking of the two, has trotted her mile in 2:10 1/4. Alix, the one with the bright, snapping eye and the white star in her forehead, has made her mile in 2:05 1/4.

Culling Out the Fowl.
Where ordinary success has followed, the rearing of poultry, autumn will usually find the stock in hand largely in excess of the accommodations there are for winter keeping, and with a number of birds that even in their pin feathers show they are not up to the standard.
But one looks long and lovingly at a chicken which, with age, might so far improve as to be exchanged for a golden half eagle, and it is hard to begin culling while hope remains. Some points, however, such as feathered legs on a smooth legged breed and scant leg and toe feathering on an Asiatic, there is no getting round, and it is with these the beginning; should be made. Get such out of the way first of all and remove the temptation to add new varieties to the standard or to modify classes in it.
Next, look for crooked breast bones and other deformities, but wait to cut for color until after the first molt.

Duck Raising.
A firm that makes duck raising pay writes to The Rural New Yorker in answer to a set of questions:
1. Four and one-half to five cents per pond. 2. The Peking. 3. Old ducks do well in flocks of 150, if they have an unlimited range. We would suggest 75 ducks and 15 ducks for best results.
One hundred and fifty young ducks is about right after they leave the brooder, but in the brooder only 100. 4. Clover, green or dry; green corn, rye, wheat and rape cut fine and given in bulk, one-third green to two-thirds grain. 5.
The demand is always greater than the supply. 6. We have a good trade on celery ducks. We use no other flavoring than celery.

If you want to go to heaven, don't let your live stock drink swamp water.
Especially keep milk cows from it.
