NEW DRESS.—We omitted to congratulate our friend Von Blasiou on his new out fit. The Confederate has made wonderful progress under his management and this improvement promises more for the future.

MEMORIALS.—R. Torry agent for monuments and headstones of the latest designs in Canada, Scotch and Pearl Swedish granites. All purchased from me will be set on a Portland Cement foundation at a low price. See my designs and get prices before buying elsewhere.

STARTING HIM RIGHT.—"I am deeply interested in discovering the lost tribes of Israel," said Mr. Musty as he came in and sat down by the busy editor for an hour's discussion of the subject. "So?" replied the man of the pen. "Why don't you advertise for them? The business office is on the first floor. Here, Dan, show this gentleman to the advertising department."

Followed Their Advice.—"I broke out with great blotches on my face, and friends told me that my blood was out of order and that I ought to take a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I followed their advice and from that time to this I have not had any eruptions on my face. I know Hood's is a good medicine." Mrs. A. E. RADKEY, St. Louis, Michigan.

Hood's Pills cures nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. All druggists, 25c.

A LITTLE.—The Markdale Standard referring to the big Bunnassan corn we received says "Editor Ramage is being fed on 10 rowed corn 18 inches long. Hope he may survive." Now Bro. Rutledge we are guilty of nothing so horrible. It was only 18 and 20 rowed corn 10 inches long. So our health is safe you see. Do be careful Brother R. Don't you wish you had some?

IS HONEST HANDS.—Mr. Alex. McDonald, north of the town drew some money out of the bank Tuesday and while placing the bag in an inside pocket it had missed and fell out. Mr. R. Webster, who was attending a meeting in the Baptist Church found it, and a Review receipt in it showed the owner. It was placed in Rev. Mr. McGregor's hands, and found the owner in a short time. The old gentleman was so highly pleased that he offered reward him. Mr. McGregor of course wished no reward.

A STRANGE INSURANCE CASE.—Shelburne papers last week give particulars of a contract resulting in some unique proceedings. Stephen and Alfred Fleunwick agreed to insure their lives for $1000 each. Stephen died before Alfred proceeded. Stephen died before Alfred had carried out his part of the bargain. Alfred secured the $1000 however and then four other brothers claimed a share. Meanwhile some creditors of the other brothers garnished the money in the bank and Alfred drew out what was left. He then gave George and Ernest a bogus order, and George had Alfred arrested for fraud. Alfred then passed over the share of both to the church, who in turn left Ernest in the lurch. Thereupon Ernest followed George to Toronto and had him arrested, he pleaded guilty and is back in Shelburne and will have to stand his trial.

HARVEST HOME SERVICES.—The congregation of Trinity Church have decided to have Special Harvest Home thanksgiving services on Sunday next and have secured the able services of the Rev. M. Goldberg to preach at both morning and evening services. The choir are preparing suitable musical selections of rare excellence and the young people are sparing no time or labour to decorate the Church with grains, fruits, flowers, and vegetables. The rector and wardens ask liberal Thanksgiving offerings at both services. On Monday evening a bountiful Thanksgiving Tea will be served in the Town Hall from 5 to 8 by the ladies of the congregation, after which the Rev. Mr. Goldberg will deliver an eloquent and instructive lecture on "The Jesus" of the program and may be relied on to do their part with great acceptance. Admission to the Tea and lecture 25c. A pleasant and profitable evening is expected.

One large coal stove with oven attached, nearly new. Apply at Peoples' Mill, Durham.

Editor Glendening of the Dundalk Herald received a fall from his bike on his way to Markdale Fair which resulted in a broken collar bone and a general shaking up. We extend our sympathy and hope he may never again meet with such a mishap even if it should deprive us of poetical effusions like the one this accident has produced.

STEAK BOY.—Monday night last Mr. S. Queen drove to town with a sick boy and when Dr. Jamieson had examined him he found it to be a pronounced case of diphtheria and at once ordered them home. Some little anxiety was felt lest contact had taken place with any one in town.

HOW OTHERS SEE US.—One must go from home to hear news. Last week's Chesley Enterprise has an article dealing with the qualifications of some supposed candidates for the Reform nomination at the coming convention. The writer assumes that Dr. Mearns, of Hanover, Mr. J. D. Morgan, Dundalk and Mr. Geo. Binnie, Glenelg, will be probable candidates and hesitates not to decide that the last named should be the man. Stir up the hat again Bro. McDonald.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Emma Whelan is visiting at Lauriston, this week.

Miss Kate McDougall, of Petoskey, Mich., is a guest at the home of Mr. C. McDougall.

Miss Maggie McKenzie, teacher, Elmwood, has been re-engaged for '98 at an advance of salary.

Miss E. E. Kerr, of Brussels, formerly of the Methodist Parsonage here, is the guest of Miss Orchard.

Rev. Mr. Jansen left Monday and will be absent for three weeks. His pulpit next Sunday will be filled by Rev. Mr. Miller, of Holstein.

The Rev. C. S. G. Boone having resigned his charge at Smiths Falls is at present visiting at Mr. Colin McDougall's for a few weeks and hopes to renew old acquaintances with his many friends in town. He will occupy the pulpit in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning. In the evening the pastor will preach as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Turnbull, Bentinck, are lately home from a two weeks' visit to friends in Guelph, Elora and Fergus. They visited the College Farm and the Elora House of Refuge and revelled in the fine garden and greenhouse of Mr. Brooks, of Fergus, where they saw in cultivation the typical Scottish flora—heather, whins and the yellow broom, and were further reminded of Auld Scotia by the excellence of Mrs. Brook's outcreek. They attended church in Fergus with Mr. Cassels, father of Mr. Jas. Cassels, of Ramsay & Morlock's store here, and were guests of Mrs. Robertson, Fergus and Mrs. R. Ferguson (nee Miss Janet Morice), Cumnock. They were delighted with their reception and were pleased to find the Durham Review at three places visited.

MILLINERY OPENING.—The annual display at Ramsay & Morlock's establishment was opened last Friday and Saturday. This year suffers not by comparison with any former year, the selection of the material and the arrangement proving Miss Farrer an arranger of no mean skill. The eyes of the ladies are delighted, and from the volume of business done the quality and price must be right.

PRICEVILLE SHOW.

Notwithstanding an adverse day, a drizzling rain falling persistently all forenoon, the turn out of people and exhibits was very good. In some classes, not unrepresented and in a large number of entries, beating in this respect any of the Shows we have seen this year. The sheep too though looking "dragged" in a wet day, were an excellent exhibit, as may be judged when Mr. A. Muir's lambs, four only took second here, but this year were in competition with that noted breeder, Mr. John Nicholson. Mr. Jas. Brodie is King in the grain classes, the Watsons, of Egremont and Peter Watson took the collection of a good garden by the number of tickets he received and Brodie took the collection of vegetables and 4 or 5 firsts in fruit. Secy. Watson's daughter, Maude had some fine flowers and won the gold and Mrs. Grier, Mrs. Hutton and Mrs. Meads had fine articles. Mrs. Harrow in the edible line took both bread prizes, and the general excellence must have made judging difficult. The concert at night netted $32. Benson of Markdale being the star performer, while the wand drill of 9 young ladies trained by Miss Darby and Mr. Blakeson was an excellent feature. Prize List next week.
