

MARRIAGE CHIMES.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. George Campbell, of Aberdeen, on Wednesday evening the 12th inst., when his eldest daughter Mary, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. John Morrison, of D. rooch. Notwithstanding the continued warm weather which threatened to disrobe mother earth of her snowy covering, a large gathering of the friends of both groom and bride collected in the comfortable Drawing Room to witness the ceremony which should unite two hearts as one. At the appointed time, 6 p. m., the groom and bridesman took their appointed places and were immediately joined by the bridesmaid. Then followed the bride on the arm of her father, who performed the duty of giving her away felicitously and gracefully.

Rev. Mr. Little, of Dornoch, assisted by Rev. Mr. Jansen, of Durham, performed the ceremony and in a few well chosen sentences according to the simple Presbyterian rite pronounced them man and wife.

Miss Belle, sister of the bride, and Mr. Peter Morrison, brother of the groom, supported sister and brother through the trying ordeal.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a rich blue cloth dress tastefully trimmed with white chiffon, pearls and ornamental silk lace. Her costume brought out to perfection the slight tinge of maidenly blush just visible on her radiant and happy face.

The bridesmaid was also neatly and tastefully dressed similarly to the bride. She too looked charming in her pretty costume with trimmings and ornaments to match.

The groom and bridesman, handsomely dressed in plain black looked the picture of health and vigorous manhood.

After the usual congratulations to the newly wedded pair the company retired to the Dining Room where was spread in rich and elegant profusion a bountiful supply of tempting delicacies arranged artistically on two long tables. Rev. Mr. Little occupied the seat of honor at the head of one table and Rev. Mr. Jansen at the other. Both gentlemen were in their happiest humor and contributed not a little to the entertainment of the guests. The ample justice done to the supper amply proved the quality of the viands as well as the heartiness of the guests.

The Wedding Cake—in five stories—plainly but beautifully ornamented was then set before the bridesman who with the good offices of the bridesmaid and Mr. Little soon distributed its sweetness to the waiting guests. The richness of the cake was in harmony with the beauty of its exterior and many a maiden fair took a portion home to dream upon of similar ceremonies in the future.

The presents were numerous, costly and useful thus showing the good sense of the donors as well as the respect and love of all towards the bride and groom. Several valuable gifts were sent by friends in Chicago and elsewhere, who could not in person be present to show their hearty good will towards the bridal party. Besides the usual quota of silverware, cutlery, etc., $30 in cash was given by a few friends who thought this the most appropriate present to young home-makers.

Besides many friends of both parties from the vicinity the following from a distance were present: Mr. Wm. and Sarah Gilchrist of Eskdale, Mr. Wm. and Mary Gilchrist and Mr. Angus Gilchrist of Bruce, Mr. and Miss Lamont of Saugeen, Mr. and Miss McKinnon of Port Elgin, Mr. and Miss McGillivray and Miss McKenzie, of Elmwood, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith of Williamsford, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Little and Dr. and Mrs. Smith of Dornoch, Inspector and Mrs. Campbell, Miss McKenzie and Rev. Mr. Jansen, of Durham.

After a few hours spent in pleasant social intercourse and recreation, the party separated wishing both bride and groom the fullest joys of a happy married life. The young couple take up life's duties under the most promising auspices for a prosperous and highly useful future.

BRADLEY GARETTON COMPANY, (Limited) TORONTO.

BALLINAFAD.

(Georgetown Herald.)

On New Year's Eve the usually quiet Presbyterian manse in this village was the scene of festivity and music not unmixed with an underlying current of sadness.

The numerous friends of Rev. D. L. and Mrs. Campbell, despite the inclement weather had met together to pay their respects and wish them God speed in their new field of labor.

Mr. A. Fowlie of Erin, was chosen chairman, and the following address was read by Miss M. Thompson followed by the presenting of 2 handsome chairs and a valuable purse by Miss A. McClure.

TO THE REV. D. L. CAMPBELL: DEAR SIR.—We in behalf of your many friends in the Ballinafad congregation, having learned with deep regret that you are about to leave us for another field of labor, desire to convey to you and your most estimable partner some slight token of our esteem and our appreciation of your faithful and earnest labor among us.

During your ministry here your devotion to your Master's work and your genial deportment have won for you the good-will of your people. During your pastorate our congregation has made very substantial progress. Our numbers have increased. There has been a more faithful attendance on the means of grace, and more liberal offerings for the cause of Christ, which are indications of a deeper spiritual life.

Now that God in his Providence has brought to us a parting of the way, we ask you and Mrs. Campbell to accept a memento of your sojourn in Ballinafad; we pray that God may bless you and keep you, that he may be

With thee, in the dwelling, Sheltering thee from fear and ill; All thy burdens kindly bearing, For thy dear ones gently caring, Guarding, keeping, blessing still.

With thee—with thy spirit, With thy lips and with thy pen; In the quiet preparation, In the heart bowed congregation, Never more alone again.

With thee—with thee always, All the night and all the day; Never failing, never frowning, With his loving kindness crowning, Turning all thy life to praise!

Signed on behalf of the congregation, JOHN MCLEAN, GEORGE YEMEN, GEORGE CAMPBELL, RICHARD SHORTILL.

Ballinafad, Dec. 31st, 1897.

On behalf of himself and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. Campbell in his usual pleasing manner, briefly reviewed his sojourn in Ballinafad and thanked his friends for their kindness past and present. He could not hope to ever again meet with as much fellow-feeling on the part of his adherents as he had met with in Ballinafad.

After lunch, a programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections, was much enjoyed.

The gathering was brought to a close by the friends singing "God be with you till we meet again, after which the benediction was pronounced.

To the Editor of the Review, DEAR SIR.—If ever there was a family compact in any municipality it is Glenelg Council for 1898. 1st The Ratepayers allowed the Reeve to be elected by acclamation. Secondly the same ratepayers elected two more of the Council Board in close proximity to the Reeve.

Thirdly having the reins of power in their hands, they were not satisfied by having Reeve, Deputy, two Councillors and Treasurer all in a bunch without showing more of their extensive authority in appointing the assessor to form one of the same family circle.

Now Sir, what I wish to draw the attention of the Ratepayers to is that it is high time something was done by way of having our Council more evenly divided throughout the Municipality and as the Ratepayers have had an experience that cannot be done without getting each Ward to elect a member of the Council Board irrespective of each other and to get this accomplished any ratepayer in the Municipality may draft a petition to be presented to the Ratepayers and if two thirds of the whole be for the proposed amendment, it can be made compulsory to have the equalization done, so as to have a representative in each Ward.

We have had an experience of the Ward system in years gone by and it worked well but as there are men who have a natural thirst for office and could not obtain it without a general vote of the whole Township, another petition was presented to the Ratepayers and the Ward system was again abolished.

Now Sir, hoping that the Ratepayers of Glenelg in general will see that the proposed amendment to the present system will take effect before the election of 1899. I am Sir, Yours etc, JUSTICE.

Glenelg, Jan. 12th 1898.

The method of the operators is as follows: A man representing himself as a piano agent approaches the farmer and asks to place a piano in his house agreeing to give the daughter music lessons for the privilege of being allowed to take other pupils there. As he gets better acquainted with the farmer, he agrees that if the farmer sells three pianos he may keep the one in his house as his own. Persistent Coughs

A cough which seems to hang on in spite of all the remedies which you have applied certainly needs energetic and sensible treatment. For twenty-five years that standard preparation of cod-liver oil, has proved its effectiveness in curing the trying affections of the throat and lungs, and this is the reason why: the cod-liver oil, partially digested, strengthens and vitalizes the whole system; the hypophosphites act as a tonic to the mind and nerves, and the glycerine soothes and heals the irritation. Can you think of any combination so effective as this?

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. 50c. and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

Almost a MIRACLE

OTTA VA, Sept. 9th, 1897, To the Phrenology Medicine Co., Ltd. Ottawa.

GENTLEMEN.—I hardly know how best to express my appreciation of your valuable "phrenologic remedy," Phrenoline. My son Gordon, who is 9 years old, has been a sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism for the past two years; was so bad at times that he had to be carried about on a mattress; was attended by two city doctors apparently without the slightest benefit; spent 10 days at Caledonia Springs, came home with no marked improvement; took three bottles of a Homeopathic remedy now being extensively advertised, which did not relieve him in the least. I was beginning to give up all hope of his recovery, when by chance I mentioned the case to a friend who strongly advised me to give Phrenoline a trial.

I did so, with the result that when my boy had taken only half a bottle he was able to get on his bicycle and ride like any other boy around the block.

I certainly feel that I cannot say too much in praise of your medicine, and shall do all I can to make known its value to others. Yours very sincerely (Signed) RUBEN CLARK.
