DURHAM.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The combination ie., Messrs Jamieson and McNichol began their meetings last Friday at Louise and are this week following pretty closely in the tracks made by Mr. Morgan and his friends last week.

We have no reports to hand of their meetings but presume they are getting along well, as of course they can present a dual chance to the doubtful voter and tell him, as we have been informed the Conservative candidate does, "that if he, the doubtful voter can not vote for him, why give it to Mr. McNichol. Fine scheme.

We have only general reports of Mr. Morgan's meetings, but these decidedly indicate, even allowing for possible bias, that the west is wide awake enough to recognize in Mr. Morgan a candidate worthy of support.

Put it down surely the West is for Morgan. Estimates made for Morgan by the best township men two weeks ago, are cheerfully acknowledged to be now below the mark.

From Egremont comes varied news. Mr. McNichol will get certainly a share of his old vote, nearly entirely of the Reform stripe but from the report of the Holstem meeting given below and what we hear from other sources there can be little doubt that the Liberal candidate will put the Conservative one largely in the minority.

Comparing with the patron is seldom indulged in, a prevailing belief being that the relative standing of the parties will not be unlike last election though of course grits and Tories both feel "cocksure." We shall see.

AT HOLSTEIN.

The meeting here on Monday last was a decided success about 200 being in attendance, and though there were supporters of all the candidates in the audience, the ring of the meeting was for Morgan.

Mr. Binnie opened and presented the case for the Hardy Government in a clear and taking light.

Mr. Wm. Allan spoke on behalf of Mr. McNichol, and was accorded a fair hearing as he handled his points with some skill considering the poor material to work on.

Dr. Mearns spoke very fluently and forcibly and in a convincing manner dealing with the Public Accounts, the educational and public institutions of the province. Dr. Mearns has his facts well marshalled and perfectly at command.

Mr. Thos Brown at this stage asked some questions of the previous speaker, and proceeded to confound him from the public accounts and if it had not been discovered that he was reading from statements a year older than Dr. Mearns, why Mr. Brown might have "had him." Mr Brown should be up to date.

Dr. Lauderkin spoke in a felicitous strain and gave a severe castigation to some of the previous speakers paying special compliments to Mr. Brown. He showed fallacy of the patrons in the record of their votes. He referred to the abolishing of the bar in the house and some other matters and wound up by wishing success to the Liberal party and Mr. Morgan.

Mr. Morgan spoke at some length on the various sources of revenue of the province, and showed how the so-called surplus of Sandfield McDonald's government was largely spent in paying off debts contracted by them. He dealt with the timber question, and other features of the Liberal policy in a way which showed him to have a clear grasp of provincial questions. He pointed confidently to Reform policy of the past as a guarantee for the future.

After a reference to Tory cries such as "Facts for Irish Electors," "The eye-opener," etc., he sat down amid applause, votes of thanks to the chairman and cheers for Morgan and Landarkin closed the meeting.

NOTE & COMMENT

-At the Centre Grey Convention the orator of the day was the "Young Man Eloquent," Duncan Marshall, of Bruce County. He was offered the Convention, but steadily declined, even though, as County Sec'y Patton writes, "Bro. Rogers offered him his choice of $200 or a farm if he would run. Rogers actually shed tears when he could not induce Marshall to stand the Convention!" Very affecting to be sure, but not particularly comforting to Bro. Davis. We hope Mr. Rogers has not been using such gilt edged offers to Mr. McNichol. in his own riding.

-Mr. Willson, at the Toronto Young Liberals' banquet: "When we hear Sir Richard Cartwright we feel that in the field of Federal affairs there are great issues at stake, and that in the Parliament at Ottawa giants may contend with honor and dignity. But to what plane have the opponents of the Government reduced political discussion in Ontario. (Laughter.) The session of the Legislature just closed was one long pig-killing. (Laughter.) For ten years we had "no popery"; now it seems we are to have "no pigery." (Applause.) Four years ago we had the Eye-Opener; now I suppose we shall have the Sty-Opener. Four years ago we had the calf with the cough, and now we have the hog with the cholera, and it is interesting to speculate as to just how long it will take the Opposition to get down to the mouse, or, as Emerson said of a New England road, to get into a squirrel track and run up a tree. Then, you will remember that four years ago we had eggs, and now when the eggs have got stale, quite stale, we have ham, diseased ham, so that even as ham and eggs the Opposition policy is a miserable failure. (Laughter.)

-A far reaching railway enterprise was consummated last week by the Ottawa Government. Wm. McKenzie and Mr. Mann are the chief partners in sight and they intend to push and have running by next September, a railway to Teslin Lake starting at Sackville river and being in Canadian territory all the way. Its length will be about 150 miles and there will thus be an all-Canadian rail and steamboat route from the Pacific to Dawson City. Strangely, they ask no cash subsidy, but actually put up as a guarantee a quarter of a million dollars. In return of course they get some valuable land grants, and mining privileges, and the whole business seems to be one more feather in Laurier's cap. Even Sir Chas. Tupper speaks highly of the deal and many other Conservatives. The World and the Mail without any reason are sniffing a scandal, and looking to the Senate to reject it. The government has control of the rates, and we have no doubt that in a few days they will be able in parliament to fully justify every step.

General Debility and Loss of Flesh

Scott's Emulsion has been the standard remedy for nearly a quarter of a century. Physicians readily admit that they obtain results from it that they cannot get from any other flesh-forming food. There are many other preparations on the market that pretend to do what does, but they fail to perform it. The pure Norwegian Cod-liver Oil made into a delightful cream, skillfully blended with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, which are such valuable tonics, makes this preparation an ideal one and checks the wasting tendency, and the patient almost immediately commences to put on flesh and gain a strength which surprises them.

Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion. See that the man and fish are on the wrapper. See and $1.00, all druggists. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.
