THAPTER IV.

The words were ever before me in address!" Both by night and by day they beat upon my brains. Christmas passed; bright lovely spring was coming. What was I to do?

dress. No letter no prayer from me could reach him. In all the wide world I did not know where to look for him. had gone into another sphere.

other future; no other home, nothing young lover who had loved me so dearly, and had worshipped me so enhealth strength, everything failed me self. Pray sit down." except my faith; that was undimmed and untouched. If he was lying ill, unable to write, I knew he was thinking of me longing for me; if he had been suddenly sent to some distant place on business, from which perhaps he was unable to send news to me, she continued; "time hangs heavily on to know anything of the hard side of work of the Viennese sculptor, Hegen-posal was made, etc. he would be miserable as I was. Even my hands. May I ask for whom you life. She ate from silver plate; she barth. if he was lying dead in the depths of the sea his last thought had been mine. expressed my true sorrows for you! Every hour of the day and night this I felt my lips tremble when I answ- the finest of linen, of lace, silk velvet, to which are attached their boxes of do? There were times when the impulse was strong upon me to go out into Then faith and patience came to my cried, "How very pleasant!" aid. They said, "Wait here for him. He will come with the lilies and r. ses; a Leauty, Miss Chester." wait in home and patience."

The spring came and went. I avoided looking at the lilacs. Their perfume ing it-but I avoided looking at them. I suppose," she remarked My beart was sick, half dead with pain and the sight of them would almost have killed me. Then June came with its roses. My little store of money was all gone, and I knew that I could cottage. Mark would come in July, if he?" he were living; and if he did not come. I should know that he was dead. So in desolation and anguish of heart I in it. counted the days. I dreaded at times to look in the mirror; I was so afraid living are one and the same thing," it died there. that my hair had grown gray. The

One by one the sultry days went by, tives?" and then I felt sure that he was dead. He would have come to me had in the world." frue young lover was dead.

I would only pray to Heaven with ter able to devote all your time, weeping eyes that I might die too, thought and attention to me!" During these long months of suspense I had lived through the suffering of a lifetime. When the month of August came I saw that part of my life was ended. In a few days I was quite at home no earthly ties.

her. I must read to her, answer her loved you!

wild flowers. The h use was a grand kind and courteous to me. He was his hat.

No. thank you, said the girl with the which are bachelor girls, has been ortrate a card on which was printed in sked Whipples of the critic. light fell on the great gables and the cupied his whole time He would not and I'm tiged of sitting down large windows. My courage almost fail- his orders. He was just as indused me when I saw what a magnificent trious as his young wife was the re- WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE FOUR home mine was to be. I felt some lit- verse. We were always excellent letters of fire-"Gone away-left no tle curiosity as to what Lady Yorke friends. At times he asked me to help was like. I pictured her an invalid- him, and his thanks always pleased me. pale, delicate, quiet. Before long I Poor Lady Yorke! Young, beautiful was in her presence, and I perceived wealthy, she was yet one of the most my mistake. I saw at once that her discontented and miserable of womchief malady was due to having had en. She had not a useful interest in Mark had gone away and left no ad- all she wanted all her life. She had nev- the world. She had servants who er known trouble or care. She was waited upon her hand and foot; she Monte Carlo is 35 suicides. a slender woman, with dark eyes and had a husband who indulged her and ing, neither reading nor working. She was ill from indolence. else to which I could look forward. looked up with a glance of relief as I Watching her for a whole day, see-something of surprise, "I am glad to caprices, ordering things because she see you! I was just feeling as though fancied, and not because she wanted tirely? Was he living or dead? Hope, I did not know what to do with my- them, spending money profusely with-

"I was greatly pleased with your some pretext or other too absurd to way are fully 700 years old, and are references, Miss Chester. Madame de mention-I thought of the many poor still in an excellent state of preserva-Deffand tells me that you are devoute. women dying for want of food, of the tion. Is it true?" She did not wait for an many children perishing from hunger, Mark Twain, like the late Cristoforo of every person who asks them to marshe continued: "time by the brown anything of the hard side of Colombo, now has a bust. It is the ry, and describe just how each pro-

"How very sad!" she said, just in the the wide world and search for him. same tone in which she would have

Then she looked at me with a smile. "You did not tell me that you were "I did not know it," I replied.

me beautiful was hushed forever. "People of your way of thinking do

It was my turn to smile. "What do you mean by my way of seemed to wake to a consciousness of cricketers' visit to Australia is the thinking. Lady Yorke?"

"Madame tells me that your thoughts are more in heaven than on in pain. We were crossing the park earth," she replied

I said with the rash presumption of "Por little thing!" I said. "It has one ignerant and inexperienced. I color had left my face, and the light had known only one love and one faith hope, in these great green boughs." lated at German universities this win- A doctor discovered that the pain was Ah, me, can I ever forget the slow housekeeper, to give you the two most dead." said Lady Yorke. 'I told Masham the do not think I have ever seen anything usual, in the law faculty. torture of that month? Every day I cheerful. They are in what we call went to the group of trees where we the 'Queen's Wing.' I hope you will had parted, to wait as L had promised. be very comfortable. Miss Chester. I think you told me you had no rela-

"No." I replied: "I am quite alone he been living. My handsome, brave, "Ah, then," said Lady Yorke, with a pleasant smile, "you will be the bet-

CHAPTER V.

f put on mourning for my lover. The at Westwood and understood my dusun of my life had set; I would mourn ties. They were certainly heavy. For- yourself must die?" for Mark as wives s rrow for a belov- tunately for me, with my great love ed husband. I never thought of an- of early rising and fresh air, they did other lever, or of future comfort, or not a mmence until ten in the mornhope, or happiness. Wherever he lay ing. Lady Yorke did not care to be dead, there my heart was buried with disturbed before that hour. I do not ple dying, Lady Yorke?' I asked. him. The realities of life came up n think she had ever seen the sun rise me, and I believe saved me from go- or the dew lying like diamonds on pen, I should think. Age and death ing mad. I sold all my furniture, and the grass. So the fresh sweet hours naturally go tegether." books, everything I possessed; I gave were all my own. I rose almost with "My Mark was young." I said, "and liberally to Dorothy, and bade fare- the sun, thinking often that if people well to my lovely old home. I was knew how lovely the early morning and he died." twenty-one when I went to London was they would never waste much time to seek my fortune. The first post I in sleep, and went out into the park. Yorke, and suddenly I remembered these pipes cost £200 each. set my fortune. The first post I seemed to me always that I spent that I did not know. That which seem- Commander Henry James, retired, ing heathen children and educating lish in a boarding school in France. those early morning hours with Mark; ed so certain to me might be very unfluence of one of the elder pupils I was on one side of the blue sky and think of such disagreeable things." list, has just died at the age of 99 years. obtained an engagement in England- I on the other. And I was possessed continued Lady Yorke. "It does no He entered the service in 1812, but had not as governess this time, but as com- with the idea that he could hear and good, and makes one's life miserable." no luck in promotion, and was retired panion to Lady Yorke, who lived at see me. Ah, my love, how I loved you! a grand old place called Westwood, in When I went back to the house after not ruled by such thoughts," I replied. | ago. Kent. I was glad enough to return those hours of peace and rest, my mind to England. Before going to West- was braced for the day. If I had not and not for this." wood I went to Gracedieu with per- seen Mark I had looked long and lovhaps a forlorn hope that I might hear ingly at the blue heaven where he was, serious. For my part I could not give at Stockport, England, in excavating some news of Mark—of how he had I had not spoken to him but the whis
some news of Mark—of how he had I had not spoken to him but the whis of that dead hird has made me feel ill to lay down a sewer. The corporation it Accounts For the Year Being Twelve I went the old round-from the rec- the song of the birds, all seemed so and miserable." tor to the lawyer, and from him to many messages from him. After ten Mark's acquaintances. No one had o'clock I had never another moment heard one word. He was dead-Mark, to call my own. Then Lady Yorke was said. my darling .- dead, and I was alone, in her boudoir, and every morning she There was but one thing before me- had a thousand new wants. It was a the indolent, selfish soul, was roused land under letters patent issued by the to live my life and pray that I might puzzle to me how she invented them. There were letters to answer, invita- of death and pain had come to her, nev- and the Orange Free State are not also flection will show that any other lation has gone down from 209, in 1890, It was whispered from one to an- tions to send out. She liked to hear er to be forgotten. other that my lover was dead; and then me read. Every day brought its pato those who cared most for me there pers, periodicals, magazines, new novrame a gleam of pity for one who had els, all of which must be read to her. Then we walked or drove. At lunch-It was in the month of July that I con Lord Yorke joined us, and then went to Westwood. Lady Yorke was her ladyship rested. We had another very candid with me. She told me that drive in the afternoon dinner at apple variety. the one complaint she suffered from seven and in the evening Lady Yorke was ennui. She was lonely; she want- requested me to sing. I liked that ed amusement; she needed a cheerful time best, for I sung every sweet the average love letter. companion. She would require me to love-song that I knew, and I sung spend the greater part of my time with , always to Mark. Oh. my love, how I

letters, sand out her invitations. She Lord Yorke was a kindly generous would expect me to spend my even- man, quite fifteen years older than than never to have loved at all. ings in the drawing-room, to sing when his beautiful languid young wife. He | Newspaper articles climb the ladneeded, take a hand at whist. She worshipped her, and she in her help- der of popularity by going wrote most unreservedly to me. The less way was fond of him. They were rounds. life would be tedious, she owned, but very rich. They owned this fine es- A woman may pretend to be conthen I would have a large salary and tate at Westwood, and they had a vinced against her will, but she never magnificent house in London and a is. On the second of July-I shall never villa in Florence. That was Lady The knife grinder is happiest when forget the date-I found myself at the Yorke's whim. When the winter was things are dull in his line of busipretty station of Woodheaton the too cold and the spring too wet, she ness. nearest town to Westwood. A luxur- went to Mentone, where she could bask The smaller the calibre the bigger four carriage awaited me and I enjoy- in the sunshine the whole day long, the bore. This applies to men, not ed the drive. Every one knows how They had numerous visitors and firearms. the sea washes the fair Kentish coast. friends. It was to fill the interval | Some men prefer the joys they are evidently knows more about running Even amid the od r of the flowers, the between the departure of one set of after here, to the prospective joys of scent of the rich clover meadows and visitors and the coming of the next, the hereafter. the fragrance of the rose-covered that I was wanted. Lady Yorke could hedges I distinguished the sea breeze, not endure to be alone, she must be The park was a beautiful undulating constantly amused. They had no chilexpanse, full of fine old trees of ev- dren; and that was the one drawback. ery variety of form, and carpeted with I liked Lord Yorke; he was always tleman in the car, rising and lifting

Hardly a weed was pulled up without granted every wish that she express-An expression of languid discontent ed; she was never called upon to make He seemed as lost to me as though he marred the beauty of her face. There any exertion either of body or mind. was a line across her white brow that She was never compelled to think; now both in their 81st year. betokened temper, and something in Lord Yorke and Mrs. Mashem thought What could I do? In the July of this the expression of her lips told the same for her. If twenty visitors were comyear he was to come home and marry story. The room was beautifully fur- ing, it made no difference to her. Beme; I was waiting for him. I had no nished and decorated. The lady her- fore I had been many days there I once. self, was lying on a couch, doing noth- had read her character accurately. She > ing her study nothing but herself, her "Miss Chester," she exclaimed, with wants, her wishes, her whims, and her out looking at what was purchased- in the English channel was recently Lady Yorke did not look like a per- seeing her send away the most del- picked up by a London tug. son who was easily amused. I took a licate fruits, the most recherche of dishes, the most costly of wines, under drank from the rarest of Bohemian Oh, Mark, how little that mourning glass; tea was served to her in the Berlin has female commercial travel- ampton, Mass., had an exasperating exand satin; she had jewels of priceless samples. "For the gentleman to whom I was value; in all her life she had never When the Simplen tunnel is com- other. After each had vainly spent sevgranted to her. She perhaps had read the words "hunger," "cold," "privation," "starvation," but she did not understand their meaning. How could she when she had never felt either cold | the Russian oil in the markets of the or hunger in her life? Her life had far east. The supply seems to be in- gregation had agreed to pay him sixbeen a Sybarite's life of pleasure, and exhaustible. The only voice that had ever called the result was that beyond herself she had not a care or thought in the world. filled the air-I could not help breath- not value the gift of personal beauty, this sleeping soul I should not have lived in vain.

I remember the first time that she self, and she had never seen any one a Melbourne young lady. when suddenly above our heads we "The man I loved is in heaven." I heard a discordant cry of birds. Sud- been obliged to refuse orders for six not remain many weeks longer at the said. "Where else could my thoughts dealy a little bird fell fluttering and fast torpedo boats for foreign Governdying at our feet. It had been at- ments on account of the engineers' her daughter, he broke off the match, from overcrowding. "People are not often true to a tacked and wounded by some bird strike. dead love," said Lady Yorke calmly, larger than itself. I shall never for-"For my part, I do not see much use get the look in the dark eyes, the faint fluttering of the little wings ere it "Truth to the dead and truth to the died. I had raised it in my hand and had a short life, but a merry one, I

"Is that true, Lady Yorke?" I asked, looking at her in wonder. "Yes, quite true." "Have you ever wondered what death is like?" I inquired. "I do not think so. I have never thought of death at all." "Have you never lost any friends?" I asked again. "Has no one whom you loved died?" "No-no one whom I loved. People I have known have died; but then they always seemed to me quite apart from the tallest soldier in the army. He is the rest of us."

I looked in wonder at the beautiful "Have you ever thought that you "I suppose I shall die some time," she replied; "but I am young now ... I need not legin to think about it vet."

strong, he never had a day's illness large and heavy, not intended to be a cooking recipe became mixed in a Lon- 56, compared with 125 for the three per of the wind, the ripple of the leaves of that dead bird has made me feel ill of the town want to blow it up with "Yet, everything living in this scientific men throughout England. world has to die sooner or later." I

(To Be Continued.)

POINTED PARAGRAPHS. The original family tree was of the Pleasures are the commas used punctuate life's sad story.

It is better to have loved and wed

WANTED A REST. Won't you take a seat? said the gen-

CORNERS OF THE GLOBE.

Old and New World Events of Interest Chronicled Briefly-Interesting Happenings of Recent Date.

Last year's statistical record of

The Chinese dress in white at funerals and in black at weddings.

The King and Queen of Denmark are Few natives of India eat more than twice a day, and thousands only Viscount Pollington eldest son of the Earl of Mexborough, has openly professed Buddhism.

Widespread drought, the most disastrous known for generations, is ravaging Caps Colony. A derelict steamship boiler floating

Some of the wooden churches of Nor-finest of Dresden china. She wore lers who go their rounds on tricycles, perience in New York. They came to pleted the distance between London eral hours in seeking the other, they and Brindisi wifl be diminished 122 returned home secarately. kilometres. Sumatra kerosene is competing with An extraordinary increase in the sixth of this sum. He resigned, and in Japanese navy is imminent, no fewer than 33 war vessels being now in course of construction. An unexpected result of the English Lady birds are being imported into 000 Egypt from New South Wales in order to protect fruit from parasitic insects.

"Is it really dead?" Lady Yorke, ask- ter semester, an increase of 1,000 over

Joseph Arch, the laborer member of Parliament, left memoirs which the Countess of Warwick, the Lady Brooke has edited, and will publish soon.

The British Grenadiers now possess six feet and three-quarter inches in Twenty-six persons comprise the fam- fact that during the history of the number of foreign students frequent- sent wife, the other twenty-three are effect. The falling off of committals ing it, has established an instructor- by Mr. Quail's first spouse, who died has been most marked, and the indica-"Have you ever heard of young peo- ship in elementary German to enable two years ago. They eat at two tables; tions seem to point to a diminution of "Yes, but that does not often hap- the lectures are delivered.

The most elaborate pipes are those of another. the Turks and Persians. The bowls are An item of religious intelligence and age for the past three years has been carried about, and the stems are sev- don paper, with this result: "The Cath-

"No life can be really happy that is for age as a lieutenant fifty-six years

"We ought to live for the next world | A big fossil bog oak weighing forty tons, which geologists assert to be ten "Madame Deffand said you were very thousand years old, has been dug up dynamite, in spite of protests from

Natal has been enlarged by the an-She made no remark, but I saw that nexation of Zululand and Amatongafrom its long sleep. The first thought Crown. That the Transvaal Republic as things are now, however, a little retire previous year. The average popu-

on the Italian ironclad Lepanto. When most of the external influences which | The report recommends that the inin a Spanish port some time ago every operate upon plants is completed." If mates of the Mercer Reformatory be one on board, from the Admiral down, the earth were moved by one eighth of given more systematic employment. The deadly parallel is too much for ish Government lottery. The ticket trees as an example have trees as an example have trees in 1806. drew a prize of $200,000, which has trees, as an example, have precisely en- in 1896.

> ot, the bicycle. A retired lieutenant- not have the winter season for rest. crimes against the person, while 176 colonel was walking in his orange gar- The ascendency of the sap, the put- were sent to jail for crimes against den one day recently when four well- ing forth of the leaves, the flowering public morals and decency. dressed men entered, who, after bar- and the fruit bearing, are all timed gaining with the old gentleman for precisely according to the seasons. For his crop, bound and gagged him, break- this reason they cannot be altered. fasted at leisure in his presence, then and the year is 12 months long. broke open his furniture and walked. It has been calculated that there are off with $7,000 he had in the house. at least 10,000 kinds of "vegetable They were pursued by a bicyclist, how- watches," of all kinds, which are timed ever, who caught up with them and as accurately as mechanical watches to secured their arrest.

A business woman in Arkansas, who a solar year. a hotel than she knows about the English language, thus advertises: "This hotel will be kept by the widow of the former landlord, Mr. Brown, who died port? asked the judge. last summer on a new and improved 0, yes, your honor, replied the pris- few words.

A secret society, the members of few seconds he laid before the magis-

Under the Lilac Tree. have a land agent or a steward; he did everything himself-kept his accounts, received his rents, saw his tenants overlooked the home estate. Hardly a weed was coulted up without Having Completed our New Factory we are now prepared to FILL ALL CRDERS PROMPTLY.

We keep in Stock a large quantity of Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Flooring and the different Kinds of Dressed Lumber for outside sheeting.

Our Stock of DRY LUMRE is very Large so that all orders can be filled.

Lumber, Shingles and Lath always In Stock.

M. G. & J. McKECHNIE

to disclose in secret meeting the names

A young married couple, from Norththe metropolis on their honeymoon trip, and in the crowded streets lost each Hard luck was the fate of a preacher in a Georgia town. Although his condollars a week, he couldn't collect a in favor of free salvation, and the manner in which you have treated me is proof that you got it."

A young man's prospective mothersuffering. She had never been ill her- engagement of Mr. A. C. MacLaren to in law, in Boston, insisted on kissing him every time he called to see his girl. Laird Brothers, of Birkenhead, have He didn't hanker after her kisses, and fearing that he might be expected to continue the custom after he married Now the girl has begun suit for breach!

mother from her slumbers, and he comcaused by a cockroach in his ear. At into her ear.

A remarkable dream disturbed John of the Tranby Croft baccarat scandal, Howard, of Bostwick, Ga. on Monday, although in seemingly good health, he Central Prison were 598, which, with France is hastening to make of Ji- dreamed that he would die on Sunday. 380 in custody on October 1st, makes boutil, on the Red Sea, the best port On Yuesday the same dream was re- the total number incarcerated during for Abyssinian trade to counterbal- peated, and for the third time on Wed- the year 978. This is two less than ance the effect of the Italian transfer nesday. On Sunday he hade his rela- the previous twelve months. Only of Kassala to the English in Egypt. tives and friends good-by, and died that once in five years were the committals his stocking lest, and, as he is only 23 ily of Auron Quail, a colored man, of prison, down to 1896, the average senyears of age, may grow yet. He is an Brideceville, Worcester County, Md. tence had been six months and 22 They are husband and wife and twenty- increased to nine months, showing Berlin University, owing to the large four children. One child is by the pre- that long sentences have a beneficial them to learn the language in which and to avoid the unlucky thirteen, crime in the province. The number of

"Where did he die?" asked Lady eral feet long and flexible. Some of olic missionaries miCentral Africa are been 39.1 cents per day, against 48.8 accustomed to begin their work by buy- cents of 1896, or a decrease of 57 cents. pare them is to first wipe them with a clean towel, then place them in dripare tender. After which cut them in slices and cook for several hours."

THE VEGETABLE WORLD.

Months Long.

It is all owing to the vegetable world In an interval of 12 months, accor-"Pinafore" discipline seems to rule ding to Dr. Whewell, "the cycle of been divided among the officers and ough time to fulfil their duties; if the The total number of commitments year were twice its length they would was 8,884, as compared with 9,058 for be unable to bring forth two crops of 1896, showing a decrease of 171. Of Even Spain is waking up to the uses fruit, for the reason that they would this number, 444 were committed for fulfil their duties in the course of

HE HAD. Have you any visible means of sup- a charming conversationalist.

ganized at Ponca City, Oklahoma. The bold type the words: There's a sucker I think you were wise to make it

ANNUAL REPORT OF ONTARIO'S IN-SPECTOR OF PRISONS.

Facts and Figures which Show that Drunkeness is Becoming Less Common -- Costs of Maintaining the Central.

Some interesting facts are contained in the annual report of the Ontario Inspector of Prisons and Reformatories. Before figures are gone into, it is stated that the majority of the jails in the province are poor, both from a sanitary point of view and s so for his farewell sermon, said: "You were the classification of prisoners Hopes are entertained that the coming year will see some improvements in this respect.

During the past year there has been a desire on the part of counties to establish county houses. This the department think is a step in the right direction, as it will relieve the jails

Another thing that was plainly of promise , laying her damages at $50,- shown by the figures was that drunkenness was on the decrease. There had The screams of little Dennis Wood- been 1,716 committals during the past They may prove as bad a curse as the ruff, of St. Louis, Mo., aroused his twelve months, and that was a de-There are 31,110 students matricu- plained of a severe pain in the heat. In the last fifteen years there had been a noticeable falling off in in-"I hope you will like your rooms," ed, drawing near with a pale face. "I last year. The largest increase is, as daylight similar pains brought racking ebriates. In 1882 there were 4,777 comagony to the mother, and it was found mittals for drunkenness. This, the rethat a live cockroach had made its way port says, shows the result of legislation and the work done by the temperance people in the jails. 598 COMMITTALS

The number of committals to the night, between eleven and twelve so few, while the average population, 398, is the highest known to the twelve sit at one table and fourteen at vagrants this year is much below the number of previous years. The aver-

COST OF THE CENTRAL The total outlay at the Central was $56,806.24, as against $63,777.77 in '96. ping-pans and take them until they The net earnings of industries amounted to $24,690.59, reducing the cost of maintenance to 22 cents per prisoner. The total net costs for the year were

In the Central there are a number of cells that are inadequate. In the hospital there is no provision for the separation of the patients. The schoolroom was too small and inadequately

There has been a great falling off that the year is 12 months long. It | in the number committed to the Onmight have been shorter or longer, had tario Reformatory for Boys. There Nature arranged affairs differently, twelve months, as compared with 55 annexed is due to a little miscalcula- arrangement is out of the question. to 132, and the number in residence, 123, is the smallest on record.

chipped in to buy a ticket in a Span- its distance nearer the sun the year Last year there were 93 committals, or six less than the year before. To the

CULTURED INSTINCTS. Our cook is so refined! Is she? Yes; she has never broken anything but our most expensive and artistic HIS ESPECIAL CHARM.

She-All the girls think your friend He-Yes; Dick is a fellow of very PROFESSIONAL OPINION. your last.

THE VERY LATEST FRO WORLD OVER

Interesting Items About Our Great Britain, the United All Parts of the Globe, Assorted for Easy Reading.

CANADA. There were 1,595 arrests last year, against 1,821 in The Wentworth County

30 applicants for the Winnipeg's new director city a population of 45,000 of 5,000 in the year. London now embraces according to City Clerk Ki hand-book of civic statistic It is announced that the Railway will shortly establ at Winnipeg and other Man Returns of the Dominio for the year 1897 shows have been $104,700. In 189

County Clerk.

$71,796. The Minister of Justice h trial of Mrs. Sternaman f Assizes, which will be hel

It is reported at Winni committee of the Commons pointed to enquire into t system throughout the De The G. T. R. authorities : port that the railway wills over the cartage business Shedden and Hendrie compa

The steamer Commonwe doned off the coast near C. has been picked up by Willapa. The prize is wor Since the death of Coa Counsell at Hamilton no on combination of the safe in and all attempts to open if

Ninety applications have to the Department of the I dredging locations on t Stewart, and other rivers in The Welland Aqueduct P

pany has been organized, w tal stock of $24,000, to supply for light, heat and power, power for manufacturers. The Government will place 000,000 whitefish in Lake Erie, Huron, and St. Clair mer. The eggs are now bell in the Sandwich hatchery. The C. P. R. has just tes of its roads and connection routes to the Yukon gold if ka, Klondike and the no mining territories of Canad The St. Jean Baptiste C Rachel street, Montreal was by fire, on Saturday, and t tery adjoining was also bad ed. The loss will be $175,00 Mr. T. White, C. E., of S.

has left for the Yukon to his duties as chief engine struction of the new railwa H. Kennedy, C. E., and Mr. don accompany him. W. F. McCreary, immigra missioner, who has been at states that the records sho 1897 about 10,000 immigrants to Manitoba and the Territ the C.P.R. main line. Application will be made ment for an act to incorpor pany to construct a railway or electricity or other mot between London and a point! Grand Bend on Lake Huros Mr. John Bell, chief couns Grand Trunk, gives notice th plication will be made to I this session, for an act porate the Windsor & Detr Bridge Company for the purp structing a bridge over the River. The Department of Agricu tawa, has been giving consider the question of improvement cold storage arrangements season, and will, it is predict a weekly service to both Live Glasgow such as we now have tol. The accommodation in the boats will also be impre

GREAT BRITAIN. The new tattleship Implace General Sir Daniel Lysons, of the Tower of London, sind

Mr. Gladstone is suffering with neuralgia, and spent S · London police have stopped of street advertising by girls

The engineers in Great Brit voted in favor of accepting Gen. Sir Fred Middleton, w manded the forces of Canadi the last Northwest rebellion. Mr. John Laird, the shiple Birkenhead, is dead. He built hama, the famous southern Mr. Herbert Spencer is if ingly feeble health, from tion of the heart, and has from London to Brighton

The action of Richard Croll ther, manager of the Cork at Coast railway, in arbitrarily ing a signal-man, bas prove strike which threatens to through ut all Irish railways. Jabez Spencer Balfour, now Liberato: Group, was examine London Bankruptcy Court on said he had left the country owing to the advice of those wh to have known better. UNITED STATES.

There is no change in the Ne land cotton mills strike. San Francisco grain operati there will be good prices for

A terrific thunderstorm at S Mo., on Tuesday killed a man, and a boy. A shipload of cattle arrived York on Monday from Texas-1 by the water route.