

A Forced Sale in Wall-Paper

Our spring stock of Wall-Paper is now coming in and we find we have not room in our racks for it. We are therefore forced to clear balance on hand—put it at a price that will make it go—in many patterns we have just enough for one or two rooms. First come, first choice. If you don't need it now it will pay you to buy and keep for future use.

Mr. Arch. Robertson, left for Toronto Wednesday morning to take a reporting position with the McLean Publishing Co. We regret to lose our intelligent young man, but we wish for Archie all the success his intelligence and his industry deserves.

Messrs. Nedgar and C. McDougall shipped a mixed car of hogs and cattle this cold (Wednesday) morning. A full load of cattle were shipped by them last week. This is now the favorite mode of disposing of stock and the "Fair Day" is little more than a name.

THE VITASCOPE.—The entertainment in the Town Hall, Monday and Tuesday was very successful. This wonderful invention is likely to be more than a nine day's wonder as, of the many adaptations of electricity and photography, this is surely the most wonderful.

DEATH OF MRS. JAS. MURDOCH.—We learn today (Monday) with great regret that Mrs. Jas. Murdoch is dead. We will have more details later meanwhile we extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband and family in the loss they have sustained. Such is life! Yesterday orange blossoms, to-day funeral wreaths.

REFORM COMMITTEE ROOMS.—These have been opened in the room adjoining J. C. Nichol's tailor shop, upstairs, and (save the mark) just over the Chronicle office. Friends in town or country are invited to step in to discuss matters. A special meeting of all town Reformers is asked for next Monday evening at 8 p. m.

From the Port Elgin Times: "A letter from M. McNamara, president of the Huron-Ontario Electric R. R., says the Watchman informs us that negotiations for the construction of the road by the English syndicate are progressing favorably. Miller Bros. and Mr. Dew are doing a little wire-pulling for the possession of the charter, but they delayed too long when they had the chance to get into the project, and now they must stay on the outer edge.

SABBATH SCHOOL WORKERS.—A meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon to organize a Sabbath School Association for the County. Amongst those present were Rev. Messrs. Harrison, Dundalk; Thom. Fletherton; Miller, Holstein; Kitching of Varney; Vickers, etc.; and Messrs. J. W. Rith, R. MacFarlane, John Allan, Thos. Allan and others. A Convention has been arranged for a date in May and a programme prepared therefor of which due notice will be given.

In South Grey the Liberals are wildly enthusiastic over their energetic and popular candidate, Mr. John D. Morgan, who by the way, is an old Owen Sound boy. Mr. Morgan's unwavering loyalty to Liberal principles have been much admired for years; hence it is that the old, time Liberals are girding themselves to the fray, confident of success in the triangular fight. Altogether there are three candidates in the field. The watchword seems to be, "Come one, come all" opponents. John D. is a sure winner.—O.S. Ad.

AN OLD PIONEER GONE.—Peter Smith of Saugeen Tp. Bruce County, the father of Alex. Sui h, the Liberal organizer, died Monday morning at the age of 83. Deceased came to Canada from Inverness, Scotland, where he was born. He was the first settler in the County of Bruce, and had to go down the Saugeen on a raft which was wrecked, subjecting him to a narrow escape. He took an active interest in military affairs and was captain of the local volunteers. He was one of the most prominent citizens in this neighborhood.—Ex.

ADJOURNED HIGH COURT.—The following letter from Sheriff Moore has been addressed to D. McNichol M.P.P. and will explain itself.

Sheriff's Office, Feb. 9, '98.
Dear Sir,
The sittings of the High Court of Justice advertised to be held for this County on the 28th. inst., will be adjourned until the 7th of March, to permit of Jurors, Witnesses and others exercising their right to vote at the coming Provincial elections.

your truly,
CHAS. H. MOORE, Sheriff.
A very wise decision. The same procedure has been followed by the Directors of the Farmers' Institutes for a different reason, however, the numerous political meetings are interfering seriously with the attendance at the Institute meetings.

Among those attending the funeral of the late Peter Smith, of Saugeen, were Donald and Wm. Smith and many other old friends from the neighborhood of Dornoch and other parts of South Grey. His death is the severance of a great link between the present and the past in the Counties of Grey and Bruce.

Mr. N. McIntyre, the Durham timber man, is buying considerable square timber in this vicinity. It is being delivered to the Grand Trunk yards for shipment. Last year his stock went from this point by vessel, but this year agent Deuch of the G. T. R., secured the freight for the railway.—O. S. Times.

BUSINESS CHANGE IN DROMORE.—As will be seen in our Dromore news Mr. Jno. M. Findlay has bought out the store business so long conducted by the late Alex Taylor and will take formal possession in March. Since the death of Mr. Taylor Mr. Findlay has been in charge of the business for Mrs. Taylor and for many years before that he was Mr. Taylor's responsible and trusted clerk. He is thus peculiarly well fitted to assume control and his integrity probity and business insight will enable him to continue successfully the fine business established in 1860 by his lamented predecessor. The public in general, with whom Mr. Findlay is quite popular will cordially wish him success, and the REVIEW joins heartily in the good wishes.

She was a former resident of Glenelg near Townsend's Lake and had attained the great age of 94 years. She was grandmother to Mrs. Cargill, of Cargill, and was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. Three sons survive her.

HARDY IN MT. FOREST.—A crowd estimated to number from 800 to 1000 filled Mt. Forest Town Hall last night to listen to the premier, and so we could not obtain entrance. About a score went from Durham, the Grand Trunk obligingly holding the train till eleven o'clock. Mr. Hardy, though tired made an excellent impression by an excellent speech, which was not finished at 11 o'clock, thanks to Mr. Craig of E. Wellington, whose speech, a very good one, was too lengthy in the presence of his leader. More later.

BOOTHVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wilson from Singhamton are visiting the latter's parents at present.

Mr's Eva Booth had a short visit from her friend Miss B. Hardy on Saturday last.

TOWN COUNCIL.

Council met Saturday night last by special call, the regular meeting the Monday previous having gone by default owing to the lack of a quorum. Rushing business we suppose, with the added distraction of politics is the cause of the neglect. There was a fall meeting however only one member, Mr. Ball, being absent.

An account presented by A. H. Jackson for $2.07 was laid on the table for information.

Account presented by J. P. Telford, referred to Finance Com. to report at next regular meeting.
