For several years past he has been urged to stand, and his popularity and well known business ability will commend him for higher honors.

Newspaper men are blamed for a lot of things they cannot help, such as giving partiality in mentioning visitors, giving news about some folks and leaving out others. They simply print the news they can find. An editor should not be expected to know the names and residences of your uncles, aunts and cousins, even if he should see them off on the train. Tell him about it. It's news that makes the newspapers, and every man, woman and child in the neighborhood could be associate editors if they would. Please hand in your personals, marriages, births deaths, and all other news items.

AT ABERDEEN.—In the shady groves on Mr. Collinson's farm flanking the "Rocky", quite a number of the young people and a sprinkling of older heads met on Friday afternoon last to "picnic", with teacher A. Galbraith and his scholars. Probably the only game of baseball ever played in the bush took place that day, and for features of glorious uncertainty where the ball will go or what stump, stone or tree the runner will strike, bush base ball stands alone. Mr. John Dalglish was Chairman at the platform work, the contributors to which were Messrs Jno. Clark, — Putherford, — Saunders, Malcolm Clark, the "boys"; Messrs Jones, Sutherland, Galbraith and the Durham Editors. Quite a number from Durham enjoyed the usual sports, and all were gratified at the abundance of good things. Mr. M. Clark gave some interesting figures of School Section history showing that 38 pupils of the school had distinguished themselves at examinations.

A PIONEER.—One of the first settlers of the southwestern portion of Melancthon township passed away last week in the person of Francis Waite, who died at Pricerville. Mr. Waite settled in Melancthon in the year 1854, on the farm now owned by Ed. Small, and was the first settler on the 7th line, with the exception of the late Mr. John Mills, who occupied the farm now owned by Richard Mills. Andrew Anderson, now of Shelburne, was Mr. Waite's nearest neighbor. Mr. Waite's first wife died during his residence in Melancthon and all the old settlers remember the difficulty they had in taking the corpse to the Gravel Road cemetery for interment. There were no roads and the heavy rains had so flooded the swamps that it was with great difficulty they got through—the water being knee deep. In 1861 the deceased moved to Pricerville, having married again, and went into business under the firm name of Waite & Webster, general blacksmiths and carriage builders. They did a large business and made money. Mr. Waite at the time of his death resided with his son-in-law, John McArthur, merchant, his second wife having died last fall.—Shelburne Free Press.

CHANGE OF DATE.—The Ice-cream Social at No. 12 Egremont, has been changed from Tuesday 28th inst. to the day before. Friends of the school will please let this be known. Admission 10cts.

Jeweller Gordon is now to be found in his snug new shop next to Mr. Grant's, Lower Town. It has been made an attractive spot and his extensive display of Clocks, Watches, Jewellery, &c., is seen to good advantage.

BOYS BRIGADE.—Monday night last the boys had a military night of it along with their bigger brothers in uniform, and the precision of their movements and general "esprit du corps" gave much pleasure to the onlookers. Fred Ryan and Allie McIntyre have in them the making of first-class officers.

SUCCESSFUL AT LAST.—"I was a sufferer from neuralgia in my side, and headaches. I followed numerous prescriptions without benefit and was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. When I had taken only one bottle I realized it was doing me good and I continued taking it until I was cured." MRS. CARRIE PRICE, Georgetown, Ont. Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic. Easy to take, easy to operate. 25c.

ALLAN PARK PICNIC.—This Annual affair is assuming large dimensions, that of last Saturday being not inferior to its predecessors. Mr. McDonald, the teacher, and the committee who worked with him deserve credit for the excellence of the arrangements both in the intellectual and physical line. Our Allan Park correspondent refers more fully to it, and we regret we were unable to be present earlier in the afternoon to enjoy the "feast of reason and flow of soul" the day brought forth. The other feast was all right as we tested it.

A FINE EQUIPMENT.—In a circular received from the O. A. C. Guelph, we take the following paragraph: "Our farm is in good shape, well tilled and well managed. We have nine breeds of cattle, nine breeds of sheep, and five breeds of swine, for instruction in the live stock department; twenty-five varieties of hens, to illustrate lectures on poultry; all necessary appliances, for the broadest and most thorough training in milk testing, butter-making and cheese-making; a carpenter shop, in which students are taught the use of tools; a fine set of green-houses and a botanical laboratory for practical work in botany and horticulture; bees, for lectures on apiculture; a special room, for practical operations and demonstrations in veterinary science; fifty acres of land divided into nearly 2,000 plots, for field experiments with grain, grasses, clovers, corn, roots, potatoes, etc.; also a large library and reading room, well furnished with books and papers for the use of students."

COUNTY COURT AND JUNE SESSIONS

The above Courts opened Tuesday afternoon last before His Honor Judge Creasor at 2 p. m. The following Grand Jurors answered the roll call:—Walter Bell, Jas. Morrison, W. B. Scarrow, John Whately, John Hishop, Geo. Moore, James Jackson, Mark Willis, William Wallace, Samuel Cavell, Martin Sutherland and A. C. Priest. Mr. S. Cavell, of Sarawack, was chosen foreman.

His Honor Judge Creasor, in addressing the Grand Jury, laid particular stress upon the overcrowded state of the County Jail. At times there was confined therein just twice as many as there was accommodation for. He particularly defined the nature of the several criminal cases that would be brought before them, none of which are of a very serious nature.

The Grand Jury have returned the following true bills:

Reg. vs. Joshua Warrilow—Assault.
Reg. vs. Robert Boyd—Shooting.
Reg. vs. Thos. Connor—Wounding.
Reg. vs. Wm. Connor—Shooting.
Reg. vs. Morris Connor—Wounding.
Reg. vs. John Moore—Abduction of child under 16.

The criminal cases disposed of are as follows:

REG. VS. JOSHUA WARRILOW.—The charge was that Warrilow in the Royal Hotel had assaulted and beaten John McMillan. Verdict, Guilty. A. G. MacKay for Crown; H. G. Tucker for Defence.

REG. VS. RICHARD BOYD.—The prisoner, who hails from Sullivan, was charged with shooting at Dr. Pickard of Desboro, with intent to kill him. He had been of unbalanced mind for several weeks, and after hearing the Jail Surgeon's evidence and that of Dr. Stewart of Chesley and other witnesses the jury found him guilty, but insane. He will therefore be retained in Jail and sent to an asylum, A. G. MacKay for the Crown; H. G. Tucker for the prisoner.

TOWN OF OWENSOUND, VS. GODFREY.—The town sued Godfrey for 6 mos. rent of Market Scales, $175. Godfrey refused because scales were out of repair. He had thus lost custom and claimed damages. Godfrey's counsel claimed it was the town's duty to repair scales, not the lessee. The jury took this view and gave Godfrey $200. damages.
