The remains were brought to Pricville cemetery for interment on Tuesday 14th inst. in charge of Mr. Fred McGilvary from Toronto, who was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Irwin of the same place. Rev. Mr. Matheson of Pricville conducted the service at the grave in an able and touching manner, the family have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

Mr. John Graham is going to erect a summer kitchen with a stone cellar underneath 12x18 on his Cameron farm during the holidays. John says he likes to see people working. We always carried the idea that John likes work himself as well as play.

Mr. Donald Graham has erected a fine implement building 18x28. Mr. Allan Black, Pomona, was contractor and the work is a credit to both parties.

Mr. Angus McDonald is engaged with your scribe at present plowing and digging a foundation, and darkens the sun quite frequently during the day by getting hoisted on a go-ahead scraper, and says nothing till after he lights.

man was amply provided for by the ladies of the section and others. Mr. H. Brigham was appointed chairman, a position which he always fills in a very pleasing manner. A lengthy programme was carried out, consisting of speeches by Revs. Messrs Jennings and Kitching and Messrs H. H. Miller, John Taylor, R. B. Walker, Wm. Irwin of the Chronicle and Mr. Mills of the Durham School. The speech of the day was given by Mr. Miller who spoke on progress in various lines and traced very fully and interestingly the growth of education in our own province from last century onward. Suitable recitations and songs were given by the pupils of the school. Mr. Pratt of Louise gave two of his humorous songs. The Allan Park band discoursed the sweetest of music throughout the afternoon and added largely to the success of the picnic. Every thing passed off very nicely and everybody appeared to be well pleased, satisfied that a pleasant and a sociable afternoon was spent. The programme part was ended by the band playing the National Anthem after which the crowd repaired to the large field in front of Mr. Reay's house to witness a game of foot-ball, between the Allen Park and Hanover boys.
