THE BOY'S IN RED.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A campfire was held on Wednesday evening by the 36th Batt., and was largely attended, having representatives present from all the Battalions. A programme, partly musical, was carried out, which was not of a particularly elevating nature.

Excursions from Buffalo and other points to the grove near our camp is one of the features. Hundreds are here inspecting the Canuck soldiery and compliments are common. The ladies get a regular fusillade of banter from the boys.

The 31st Batt. has the largest sized men in camp and the local paper published here says the reason is that their County Council treats them so liberally that the best men offer! County Councillors please note.

Our Battalion had a trip to the Falls, Tuesday. Don't know how it is we are favored: other Battalions will be envious. No doubt our work is so good we deserve recognition, and then our good Col. Telford stands in well with the authorities. There was a large crowd, a fine day, and the sights were thoroughly enjoyed.

Dominion Day was loyally observed by marching, counter-marching, Batt. drill, brigade drill, &c., and the loyalty of the day gave place at night to hilarious song singing and other amusements.

The morale of our company has been excellent and officers speak highly of the conduct of the men.

Saturday morning found the boys packing. Glad that the prospects of home and yet withal with a kind of lingering regret that the rough and ready camp life with its suggestions of military glory and hardship was at an end.

Several of the battalions went over in the forenoon. The 31st did not leave till nearly 3 p. m., and consequently had no time to spend in Toronto.

As each boat passed the Niagara fort, three booming shots said a military good bye.

The journey home was without any unusual incident, except that a very grateful feeling was exhibited by officers and men when it was learned at Palmerston that a lunch was awaiting them on their arrival in Durham. Only volunteers can appreciate what this means after a long bustling day with scarcely more than one meal to their credit.

BALSAM VALLEY.

A great number of the boys of this part returned home to spend a few days with their parents and get a rest from their labors with the Hayseeds down below.

Messrs. Dan and Jack McKechnie, Dan, Archie and Charlie Ferguson left for Bolton last Monday where they intend to remain for a few months. "Oh dear what will Pat Fernan's do now?"

Dan "Callum Aug" is busy plastering the house for Mr. Frocks at present, also Hector McDonald and Marshall of Pricville are putting the last finishes on the outside.

Mr. Ed. Haas has completed the stone wall for D. McIntyre's barn, and the fine workmanship gives credit to the builder. Ed has secured for himself a thoro' education in the Gaelic language, he can now speak the three talks, English, German and Gaelic. The smiling countenance of the mason will be missed in Balsam Valley.

Ed has secured a job building a wall under Mr. McCormick's laru at Riverside, as Ed is a jolly fat coon of about 300 he will get along well in this part.

What we hear.—That there will be a bus line between Balsam Valley and Ventry.
