OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

Ottawa, August 13th
 The Provincial Opposition menagerie has already received its seasonal addition, and at the present rate of progress will in a few years become a star aggregation. Starting with the new historic "Call with the Cough", which in due time was joined by the "Humber Pig" we have now the "Hodgins Ram". At various periods of their history the Opposition have found themselves with "White Elephants"

In the line of illustrious tenants of Rideau Hall the Earl and Countess of Aberdeen will ever take a prominent place in the affections of the people.

Supplement to DURHAM REVIEW.

Vol. XX, No. 33

AUG. 18th, 1898.

LICENSE OR NO LICENSE.

Upper Town has had one day under Prohibition, and already a very lively dispute has sprung from it. This may be like the Indian who declared the white man's feather bed "no good" after he had tested a single feather on a rocky ledge. The Judge's injunction closed the British on Tuesday, the board of Commissioners met at Knapp's Hotel yesterday. Barrister McCaul set forth why the British License should be continued his chief argument being that a large sum of money had been expended on the house at the instigation of the commissioners. Barrister Batson spoke for the Central, urging its more modern aspect: the fact that a large majority of the ratepayers in the ward were petitioning for it and the serious financial loss to Mr. Ryan if not granted. Mr. G. McKechnie and the Mayor both spoke for the Central, but Messrs. Phelan and Poehlman withstanding all pressure, have refused the License to Mr. Ryan and the Board is to meet again on August 20th, when if Mrs. Shepherd has the requisite number of petitioners, the license will likely issue to the British. Some very strong language is being indulged in, and vigorous action proposed as will be seen from the following sent to us by the Counsel for the Central for publication:

To the Editor.

Sir:

The Action of the two License Commissioners, Messrs Phelan and Poehlman at the meeting of the board to-day in refusing the application of George Ryan for a License in respect of the Central Hotel has assumed the proportions of a Public Scandal. To-day there was presented two applications, the one (for the Central) was accompanied by the required certificate of the majority of the Electors of the Polling Sub-Division. 65 names, including 40 resident ratepayers and Electors. The other, without any certificate or petition in its support whatever.

These two Commissioners have refused the Central Hotel a License but deferred action on the other till the 20th, which is done so that Mrs. Shepherd can obtain the required number of signers to her Petition, which means that those who have signed Ryan's Petition must accept the direct slap in the face if they now support the action of the Commissioners by signing the Petition without which they cannot grant the License to the British. It is in the power of and rests with those ratepayers of Ward 1 to say if they are to be coerced into any such action. More of this later as a Public Meeting is proposed to discuss the situation.

Locals.

Messrs. Jas. G. Park and John Cochran left last week for a trip up the Lakes.

Mr. N. Coutts, cattle buyer, formerly of Bentinck is home on a visit. He is now in Leamington and engaged in the same business. Splendid crops there of grain, fruit and tobacco. Apropos: Leamington has 17 miles of granditonic side walk!

Congratulations to John S. Vollet, John Sibley and Miss Robinson, on their success on passing Junior Leaving examination. Also to Miss Lizzie Laidlaw on passing for 1st Class. T. Collinson, Aberdeen, has also passed part of the examination.

We noticed in last week's Chronicle an item copied from the O. Sound Sun throwing doubt on the assertion we made that a charge was one time made at O. Sound to see a night blooming Cereus in blossom. Mr. Gorsline is our authority and prepared to give name if necessary.

General and Countess of Aberdeen is drawing to a conclusion and it is pleasant to learn it has been enjoyable and beneficial, alike to their Excellencies and the country. Since they left Ottawa on July 9th, they have had each day pretty well filled up, having stopped at every place of any importance between here and the Pacific Coast. Each stop has been made the occasion of a public demonstration which was invariably characterized by extreme cordiality and warm expressions of personal regard. Their itinerary is not yet ended for from Muskoka where they have been this week, they go east to fulfil several engagements, among them to take part in entertaining the delegates at the International Conference at Quebec.
