World University Service to Benefit from

WLU & U of W Faculty Basketball Game

In association with World University Service Share Week, the faculty of Waterloo Lutheran University has challenged the faculty of the University of Waterloo to a benefit basketball game on Wednesday Feb. 14 in the WLU theatre-auditorium. Game time is 6:30.

The faculty game will be a preliminary to a regularly scheduled Ontario Intercollegiate Athletic Association basketball game between Osgoode Hall Owls and the WLU Golden Hawks.

Price of admission for the entire night including two basketball games and a dance is 50¢. Proceeds from the events will go to World University Services for work in their overseas projects.

It is hoped that the event may become an annual event with both schools co-operating in a benefit cause.

Some of the stars in the preliminary game include the U. of Waterloo's athletic director Carl Totzke, Wally Delahey, Norm McKee, Howie Green, Ed DeArmon and Don Hayes.

WLU "Hawkeyes" include athletic director Dave Knight, Howard Lockhart, Donald Morgenson, Daryl Bryant, Norm Wagner, John Thomson, Tom Tredway, George Priddle and Jerry Hall.

Official for the game, starting at 6:30 is Fred Nichols.
