WLU and Kitchener Library Provide
Preview to Theatre Season in 4 Talks

Playgoers planning to see many of this year's offerings at the Stratford Festival or the Shaw Festival at Niagara-on-the-Lake will have the opportunity to hear the plays discussed at four noon-hour talks in the auditorium of the Kitchener Library.

Faculty members from Wilfrid Laurier University's English department will provide brief introductions to the plays as a way of preparing theatre-goers for the season.

Speakers, dates and plays discussed at the free sessions:
Dr. Michael Ballin will discuss Twelfth Night and Measure for Measure May 5.

Prof. James Clark discusses Shaw's Pygmalion May 12.

Dr. James Doyle talks about Two Gentlemen of Verona and The Comedy of Errors May 21.

Prof. Margaret Doyle will discuss Shaw's St. Joan on May 26.
