John Rhodes, housing minister, to discuss housing problems with WLU students Feb. 24

John Rhodes, Ontario minister of housing, will visit Wilfrid Laurier University Thursday, Feb. 24, to discuss housing problems in Ontario in an open meeting scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

He comes to campus after addressing the Confederation Club's luncheon meeting at the Valhalla Inn. It will be his only campus visit during his day-long visit to the area.

The meeting, sponsored by the WLU Progressive-Conservative Campus Association, will be held in the mezzanine of the dining hall building. The minister is scheduled to speak for about 15 minutes and then field questions.

The public is invited to attend.
