William H. Timmis elected to 3rd term as chairman of WLU board of governors

William H. Timmis of Waterloo, a prominent business executive, was returned as chairman of Wilfrid Laurier University's board of governors at the annual meeting of the board.

Mr. Timmis, the retired vice-president of Joseph Seagram and Sons Ltd., is a director and second vice-president of the Equitable Life Insurance Company of Waterloo, and president of Milling Products Ltd. of Chatham.

Also re-elected to the board were lawyer Robert McIntosh of Brantford, vice-chairman; Brian E. Baker, vice-president of Nor Baker Industries of Toronto, secretary; and Walter Hachborn of St. Jacobs, president of Home Hardware Stores Ltd., treasurer.

Re-elected unanimously as board members were Michael Walters, a Kitchener lawyer, and William H. Kidd, a Cambridge lawyer.

Welcomed to the board were students Larry Scott of Niagara Falls, returning after an absence of a year, and Peter Peterson of Toronto. Arnold Voll, an electrician with the university, joins the board as staff representative.

Re-elected to represent the federated Waterloo Lutheran Seminary was Dr. Grahame Farquhar of Waterloo, a professor at the University of Waterloo.
