Joe Clark to speak at Laurier
on business-government relations

Joe Clark, MP and former prime minister of Canada, will speak on Business-Government Relations: Opening the System on April 2 at 4 p.m. in Room 1E1, Arts and Science Building, at Wilfrid Laurier University. Tickets for all seats have been distributed.

Mr. Clark is speaking on behalf of the Max Bell Business-Government Studies Program, with the talk sponsored at Laurier by the university's school of business and economics.

The program was established at York University's faculty of administrative studies by the Max Bell Foundation. Its goal is to improve understanding of the relations between business and government in Canada.
