Matt Cohen to discuss new book
at Laurier author session March 14

Matt Cohen, one of Canada's most interesting younger authors, will be in Kitchener-Waterloo March 14 to discuss his latest novel, The Spanish Doctor.

He will speak at 3:30 p.m. that day in the Turret lounge of the student union building at Wilfrid Laurier University, where he is taking part in the university's meet-the-author series, sponsored by the WLU Bookstore.

Paul Fischer, the store's manager, said the author sessions are intended mainly to allow Laurier students to meet talented writers. But anyone interested is welcome to attend. There will be refreshments and an opportunity to meet the author informally.

In The Spanish Doctor, his seventh novel, Cohen ponders why evil afflicts a whole people and why the God of Abraham created the forces of darkness.
