From chapel to chapel for daughter of WLU's Alumnus of the Century

When Earle Shelley of Waterloo graduated from the old Waterloo College, forerunner of Wilfrid Laurier University, he kept up an association that has lasted to this day-- a few years ago he was elected Alumnus of the Century.

For his daughter, Patricia, there is a connection too. She was the first child of a graduate to be christened in the chapel of Waterloo College. And on July 11, she will return to the present chapel, in the Waterloo Lutheran Seminary, to be married. The bridegroom is Ronald Hodgkinson Sr. of London, Ontario.

The wedding reception will be held at Wilf's Lounge, on campus. Part of the wedding cake is a portion of one baked in 1944 by the bridegroom's mother.
