4% rise for faculty and staff
approved by WLU board of governors

A four per cent across-the-board salary increase for faculty and staff at Wilfrid Laurier University was approved when the board of governors met in special session Monday. Affected are 650 employees.

In addition, a further $489,189 was provided for discretionary merit increases and other adjustments.

The four per cent increase will bring a full professor's minimum salary to $44,371 and a lecturer's minimum to $22,249.

In other business, William D. (Bill) McGregor of Kitchener was appointed to the board of the university for a three-year term.

McGregor is president and director of CAP Communications Ltd., of Kitchener, and chairman of the board of the CTV Television Network. CAP Communications operates television station CKCO-TV, and radio stations CKKW and CFCA-FM.
