WLU Bookstore to host signing of new Waterloo landscape book

An artist and two editors involved with the production of a new book, Waterloo County Landscapes, will promote the book with an appearance Oct. 15 at the Wilfrid Laurier University Bookstore from 12:30 until 2 p.m.

Twenty-eight artists have provided work for the book, which includes almost 100 color reproductions. The work is printed by the Beacon-Herald fine printing division of Stratford for Sand Hills Books, St. Jacobs.

Attending the event in the WLU Bookstore will be Drs. Paul and Hildegard Tiessen, the editors, and English teachers at Wilfrid Laurier University, and Woldemar Neufeld, a 1930 graduate of Laurier, the artist most prominently represented in the book.

They will be available to sign copies of the work, which is being sold for $39.95 in a limited, numbered edition of 2,000 copies.

Ten per cent of the sale price will go to the Give the Gift of Literacy Foundation, which supports education among disadvantaged Canadians.
