Fotheringham changes date
for talk at WLU to Oct. 28

Allan Fotheringham, the Southam News Service and Maclean's writer, who will discuss his new book at Wilfrid Laurier University, has had to change the date from Oct. 29 to Oct. 28. He will speak at 3 p.m. in the Turret lounge in the student building.

Fotheringham will discuss his latest book, Capitol Offences, subtitled, Dr. Foth Meets Uncle Sam. He is appearing at WLU as part of the 75th anniversary Meet-the-Author series, sponsored by the WLU Bookstore.
