Maureen Forrester to attend Laurier's alumni gathering in Senate chambers

Maureen Forrester, Canada's great opera star, who also is chancellor of Wilfrid Laurier University, will be a featured guest when the Ottawa chapter of the Laurier Alumni Association hosts an evening for Ottawa-area graduates.

The meeting will take place May 19, beginning at 7 p.m. in the Senate chambers, centre block, room 256S.

Others expected to attend are Dr. John A. Weir, president of the university, Walter McLean, MP for Waterloo, and several honorary graduates, including George Hees, Jean Chretien, and Allan MacEachen.
