WATERLOO, ONTARIO, CANADA N2L 3C5

TELEPHONE: (519) 884-1970 EXT 2070

065d-1988 Julia Ann Easley Sept. 15, 1988

Former athletic director inducted into Laurier's hall of fame

Howard Lockhart, the men's basketball coach at Lakehead University from 1970 to 1975, is one of six people to be inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

The 51-year-old resident of Sioux Lookout will be inducted as a builder at a reception and dinner Sept. 23.

The native of San Antonio, Texas, joined Laurier as head basketball coach, assistant football coach and physical education instructor in 1966.

Two years later, he led the team to capture the 1968 National Championship. In 1967, the Laurier Hawks finished fourth and in 1969, second.

As assistant football coach, he also influenced several players to go on to play professionally with the Canadian Football League. He was with the 1966 and 1968 football teams that went to the national finals.

Lockhart was instrumental in establishing the National Association for Basketball Coaches of Canada and was its first president in 1968.

At Laurier, he was known for his "Texas tough" practices. After his first one at Laurier, only 25 players out of a gymful returned the next day to try out for the team.

Once displeased with a mediocre performance in a road game, he checked his players out of the hotel, headed back 460 kilometres to Laurier and had a two-hour practice five minutes after arriving on campus.

In 1970, Lockhart joined the department of athletics at Lakehead. He served as service program director from 1972 to 1975; intramural director, 1973 to 1974; and athletics director, 1974 to 1975.

He is now a bush pilot and recreational consultant.

WATERLOO, ONTARIO, CANADA N2L 3C5

TELEPHONE: (519) 884-1970 EXT 2070

065a-1988 Julia Ann Easley Sept. 15, 1988

University alumnus inducted into athletic hall of fame

Howard Lockhart, who was part of Southwest Texas State University's championship basketball team in 1960, is one of six people to be inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at Wilfrid Laurier University in Ontario, Canada.

The 51-year-old San Antonio native will be inducted as a builder at a reception and dinner Sept. 23.

Two years after joining the Waterloo university as head basketball coach, Lockhart led the team to capture the 1968 National Championship. In 1967, the Laurier Hawks finished fourth and in 1969, second.

As assistant football coach, he also influenced several players to go on to play professionally with the Canadian Football League. He was with the 1966 and 1968 football teams that went to the national finals.

Lockhart was instrumental in establishing the National Association for Basketball Coaches of Canada and was its first president in 1968.

At Laurier, he was known for his "Texas tough" practices. After his first one at Laurier, only 25 players out of a gymful returned the next day to try out for the team.

Once displeased with a mediocre performance in a road game, he checked his players out of the hotel, headed back 300 miles to Laurier and had a two-hour practice five minutes after arriving on campus.

Before coming to Laurier, Lockhart taught school in San Antonio for a few years. He left Laurier to join the department of athletics at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay and is now a bush pilot and recreation consultant in Sioux Lookout in Northern Ontario.

WATERLOO, ONTARIO, CANADA N2L 3C5

TELEPHONE: (519) 884-1970 EXT 2070

065b-1988 Julia Ann Easley Sept. 15, 1988

San Antonio native inducted into athletic hall of fame

A 51-year-old native of San Antonio is one of six people to be inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at Wilfrid Laurier University in Ontario, Canada.

Howard Lockhart, who attended Southwest Texas State University and was a member of its championship basketball team in 1960, will be inducted as a builder at a reception and dinner Sept. 23.

After teaching school in San Antonio for a few years, Lockhart joined Laurier as head basketball coach, assistant football coach and physical education instructor in 1966.

(Located in Waterloo, the university has about 4,700 undergraduates and specializes in music, business, economics and social work.)

Two years later, he led the team to capture the 1968 National Championship. In 1967, the Laurier Hawks finished fourth and in 1969, second.

As assistant football coach, he also influenced several players to go on to play professionally with the Canadian Football League. He was with the 1966 and 1968 football teams that went to the national finals.

Lockhart was instrumental in establishing the National Association for Basketball Coaches of Canada and was its first president in 1968.

At Laurier, he was known for his "Texas tough" practices. After his first one at Laurier, only 25 players out of a gymful returned the next day to try out for the team.

Once displeased with a mediocre performance in a road game, he checked his players out of the hotel, headed back 300 miles to Laurier and had a two-hour practice five minutes after arriving on campus.

Lockhart later joined the department of athletics at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay and is now a bush pilot and rescreation consultant in Sioux Lookout, a Northern Ontario community about 1,600 miles north of San Antonio.

WATERLOO, ONTARIO, CANADA N2L 3C5

TELEPHONE: (519) 884-1970 EXT 2070

065c-1988 Julia Ann Easley Sept. 15, 1988

Sioux Lookout man inducted into athletic hall of fame

A 51-year-old resident of Sioux Lookout is one of six people to be inducted into the Athletic Hall of Fame at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Howard Lockhart, a bush pilot and recreation consultant, will be inducted as a builder at a reception and dinner Sept. 23.

The native of San Antonio, Texas, joined Laurier as head basketball coach, assistant football coach and physical education instructor in 1966.

Two years later, he led the team to capture the 1968 National Championship. In 1967, the Laurier Hawks finished fourth and in 1969, second.

As assistant football coach, he also influenced several players to go on to play professionally with the Canadian Football League. He was with the 1966 and 1968 football teams that went to the national finals.

Lockhart was instrumental in establishing the National Association for Basketball Coaches of Canada and was its first president in 1968.

At Laurier, he was known for his "Texas tough" practices. After his first one at Laurier, only 25 players out of a gymful returned the next day to try out for the team.

Once displeased with a mediocre performance in a road game, he checked his players out of the hotel, headed back 460 kilometres to Laurier and had a two-hour practice five minutes after arriving on campus.

Lockhart later joined the department of athletics at Lakehead University in Thunder Bay.