Burlington resident wins scholarship at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, Ont. (Jan. 12) — A Burlington resident has distinguished himself by winning a $700 scholarship at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Daniel Hrubes, who graduated from Nelson High School in 1991 and is now completing the final year of the honors economics program at Laurier, will be among 50 students honored at an awards reception on Thursday, Jan. 26.

Hrubes will receive the Stewart Scholar's Award. The award recognizes the student with the highest average in four senior economics courses.

Hrubes is the 21-year-old son of Ian and Irene Hrubes of Belvenia Road in Burlington.
