Area residents win scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, Ont. (Feb. 20) — Two area residents have won scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Stephanie Brill of St. Jacobs, who is in the third year of the honors music program at Laurier, and Charmaine Martin of Elmira, who is in the fourth year of the honors music program, will be among 75 students honored at an awards ceremony at 4:30 p.m. on March 8 in the Maureen Forrester Recital Hall on campus.

Brill will receive the Henry and Mabel Krug Scholarship. The $1,000 scholarship is awarded to the third-year vocal student who is judged to be the top student on music and academic grounds.

Brill, who graduated from Elmira District Secondary School in 1992, is the 21-year-old daughter of Harold and Joan Brill of James Place in St. Jacobs.

Martin will receive the Walwyn S. Long Award. The $500 award is presented to a music student judged to have outstanding performing ability.

Martin, who graduated from Elmira District Secondary School in 1991, is the 22-year-old daughter of Aaron and Loretta Martin of Sunset Place in Elmira.
