Beaches resident wins scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, Ont. (Feb. 20) — A resident of the Beaches area has won a scholarship valued at $500 at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Sarah Gibson, who graduated from Malvern Collegiate Institute in 1991 and is now in the fourth year of the honors music program at Laurier, will be among 75 students honored at an awards ceremony at 4:30 p.m. on March 8 in the Maureen Forrester Recital Hall on campus.

Gibson will receive the Arthur Freund Music Award, which is presented annually to an outstanding trombone student. She won the same award in 1992.

Gibson is the 22-year-old daughter of Allan Ross and Kathleen Gibson of Kent Road.
