Prince George resident wins scholarships at Wilfrid Laurier University

Waterloo, Ont. (Feb. 20) — A Prince George resident has won two scholarships valued at $1,500 at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo.

Carmelita Heese, who graduated from D.P. Todd Secondary School in 1991 and is now in the third year of the honors music program at Laurier, will be among 75 students honored at an awards ceremony at 4:30 p.m. on March 8 in the Maureen Forrester Recital Hall on campus.

Heese will receive the $500 Neale Hamilton Tayler Memorial Scholarship, which is presented to a student who shows outstanding promise as a musician and scholar. She will also receive the Incentive Scholarship, a $1,000 scholarship for students who maintain an average of A- or better.

Heese is the 21-year-old daughter of Victor and Irene Heese of Dornbierer Crescent.
