ANNOUNCEMENT OF EVENT

Bikes hit the road in support of Habitat for Humanity

Two students, one from Wilfrid Laurier University, and one from the University of Waterloo, have organized an eight kilometre bicycle ride through Waterloo to raise money for the Waterloo region of Habitat for Humanity.

Registration begins at 2 p.m. at the Waterloo Recreation Complex and the ride begins at 2:30 p.m. The event is open to riders of any age or ability. Organizers are hoping for close to 200 participants.

Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization committed to eliminating poverty housing in the world. Donations of materials, time and money help people build their own homes. Habitat operates in over 50 countries including Canada.
