Laurier Organizes Search for Missing Student

Wilfrid Laurier University is asking for assistance from the surrounding community as it organizes a search for a student who went missing in Sauble Beach. The Dean of Students' Office is organizing a volunteer search effort to help look for Kieran Patrick Kelly on Saturday, August 14. The volunteers will leave Laurier at 7 a.m. and will return by 9 p.m.

Anyone interested in volunteering should contact Laurier's Dean of Students' Office at (519) 884-1970 ext. 3318 to confirm participation. Dean David McMurray is asking interested members of the community RSVP before Wednesday, August 11, at 4:30 p.m. Transportation will be arranged after the number of searchers has been confirmed.

For more information, please contact Michael Strickland at (519) 884-0710 ext. 3070.
