Laurier Brantford offers look at university life to future students

October 26, 1999
76-99

Academic programs, extracurricular activities and financial aid – senior high school students are now considering these and other aspects of university as they draw up the short list of schools they want to attend. To help families make the right decision, Laurier Brantford is opening its campus to prospective students and their parents during Fall Open House.

Laurier Brantford will host its first annual open house this Friday (October 29) from 1 to 4 p.m. Visitors – most from the Brant County and Haldimand-Norfolk area – will tour campus, speak with faculty and students, and learn about typical student projects and activities.

The afternoon will begin with opening remarks from Laurier President Bob Rosehart in the Lecture Theatre, A seminar on Brantford's programs, a mock lecture, discussions with current students and sessions on admission and financial aid will follow.

For more information about the open house, or to book a tour for another day, please contact Laurier Brantford Liaison Services at (519) 756-8228 ext, 5709,
