The Future of Canada's Financial System

The Mutual Group Financial Services Research Centre Speaker's Series

Queen's University professor Edwin Neave, an international scholar in the study of financial institutions, will share his views on "The Future of Canada's Financial System" during the next lecture in the Mutual Group Financial Services Research Centre Speaker's Series. An academic whose publishing credentials include nine books and 35 articles – as well as commentaries for the C.D. Howe Institute – on the country's financial system, Professor Neave recently appeared before the House of Commons Standing Committee on Finance. He will comment on the recently released MacKay report on the future of financial institutions.

Professor Neave will deliver the lecture at the following time and place:

Date: Monday, October 19, 1998
Time: 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.
Location: Wilfrid Laurier University
Paul Martin Centre

Following his presentation, Professor Neave will take questions from the audience.
