Open House welcomes prospective students to Laurier Brantford

BRANTFORD – Laurier Brantford will open its doors for the annual March Break Open House on Wednesday, March 18, from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The open house gives potential students and their families a first-hand opportunity to learn about academic programs, admissions, financial aid, and student life. Laurier Brantford faculty, staff and students will be on hand to answer questions, give guided tours and introduce visitors to life on campus.

“This is a fantastic opportunity for those who have applied to Laurier Brantford to come and see the campus,” said Kevin Klein, public relations and recruitment officer. “With workshops, tours, an information fair and a chance to meet the faculty, students can have all their questions answered in just one visit.”

Professors will lead workshops for each program offered at Laurier Brantford, where interested students can learn more about courses within the program and possible careers. The student life fair will provide a chance to ask questions one-on-one with student groups and services on campus. The fair will also feature a social, where faculty will be on hand to talk about Laurier Brantford over refreshments.

The residences will also be open, beginning at 10:30 a.m., for students to tour the apartment-style suites, and to find out what current residents love about their on-campus home.

For more information about the day, please visit the Laurier Brantford website at www.laurierbrantford.ca, or contact Kevin Klein at 519-756-8228 ext. 5777 or kklein@wlu.ca
