Dear Mother:-

As it has been a week since I wrote you last, I will try to give you a few lines again to night. It is only two weeks from to-day till Christmas, but it hardly seems like it, as the weather is so mild. It has been the mildest fall and has held out the longest of any that we have experienced these many years. It will shorten up our winter quite perceptibly. It is a very muddy time, however, and the roads are in desperate condition. I am in hopes that when we do have winter, it will be solid and steady. I would like to see snow for the holidays, but don't know whether we will get it or not. Monday, I expect to go down to Halifax. I will probably not be back before Wednesday. I think we will go down by the steamer Kimburn. It will not be as nice a trip as it would be in the summer time, but as I have been down by train it will be a new experience. I am having a suit made, so that I will present a decent appearance in the city. The latter part of last week I received the formal resignation of the Rev. Paul Weller as a member of our Synod. I had been after him hot and heavy for some time for fellowshiping with and preaching for the Universalists in Halifax where he at present resides. I
