of Nova Scotia.

Office of the President.

The Poor Overseers of the district will pay us about <sup>191</sup> $40 a year apiece toward the maintenance of the children. This will help out our finances a little. I sold one of our cows the other day for $45 and bought another in her place for $40. The one I sold was a poor milker, only giving about a quart at a milking. I got a good one in her place. I haven't sold any potatoes or farm products yet. Have been waiting for better prices. Potatoes only bring 40¢ yet. By spring I can probably get 75¢ a bushel. I will have a hundred bushels or more to sell. Next week we expect to kill two pigs that will dress probably 200 lbs. a piece. I will sell both of them and get 9½¢ a lb. for the whole carcass. I haven't got in much money lately, but I think everything will work out all right after the Christmas collections come in.

The children, Cora, Herman, and Marion are all well. Marion is growing fast and is becoming increasingly interesting. The boys can't do enough for their father and almost fall out over which one shall wait on him. Herman is the greatest talker for his age I ever saw. He is a very polite little fellow too and never forgets his manners. Cora talks like a grown man. She has improved wonderfully in intelligence since you saw him. But I must close as it is bed time. With love to you all and all good wishes, I am

Most Sincerely yours,
Corraet Little.
