SPEND AN EVENING with Laurier's writer-in-residence,

Joseph Boyden

award-winning Canadian author of Three Day Road and Through Black Spruce.

about JOSEPH BOYDEN

Boyden is an award-winning novelist whose work has been influenced by his Métis heritage. His first novel, Three Day Road, won the McNally Robinson Aboriginal Book of the Year Award, the Amazon.ca/Books in Canada First Novel Award, and the Rogers Writers' Trust Fiction Prize in 2006, and was nominated for a 2005 Governor General's Award. His second novel, Through Black Spruce, won the 2008 Scotiabank Giller Prize. On March 6 to 8, Boyden will visit Laurier's Waterloo campus as our writer-in-residence. He also visited our Brantford campus in November, 2011.
