

- THE WHAT AND THE WHY OF THE AUXILIARY -

The Women's Auxiliary of Waterloo College made up of women who believe they can make a definite contribution to the advancement of God's plan by giving their consecrated help to the promotion of His Ideals in the educating of young men and young women. If the leadership of the future is to be vitally useful, it must be directed according to His Plan. The Women's Auxiliary, from its very beginning, has placed its full effort behind the program of keeping the Christian ideal of life definitely before the student body of Waterloo College.

In this year of 1949, the Auxiliary completes thirty-six years of this service. Its members look back with gratitude and degree of satisfaction upon its accomplishments. And they are planning with an increasing zeal and devotion for still greater achievements in the future.

- ORGANIZATION AND MEMBERSHIP -

The Auxiliary was organized in 1913 and its membership extends from Sault Ste Marie to the Atlantic Coast in Nova Scotia. Representatives from the various communities attend the General Conference which is held annually in June. In this way each Auxiliary participates actively in all the purposes and policies of the General Society.

Any woman interested in the program of the Auxiliary may become a member by the payment of One Dollar ($1.00) annually. Men may become honorary members on the same terms.

From its inception the Auxiliary was responsible for the furnishing of dormitory rooms. A few years ago dormitories were refurnished, the Auxiliary securing $100. gifts from individuals or groups to obtain the necessary funds for this project. On the door of each room a plate was placed
