Dr. Lehmann, President of the Seminary and College referred to the important roll the College could play especially in Lutheran circles. He stressed the need for having a definite and worthwhile objective. He related his talk to God's statement to Moses - "The place whereon thou standest is holy ground." He said - "We are at a particular place at a particular time, led here by God's grace, and we can continue to render a service to God and His servants". He pointed out that the fine buildings and equipment alone were not enough. I am convinced we must have a teaching staff committed to the christian way, he said. He was thanked by Mrs. Carl Klinck.

Mrs. Lloyd Moser appealed for furniture for use in the Lutheran Camp at Edgewood Park.

It was moved that the Auxiliary have letter heads printed.
