Rev. Dr. C. H. Little, Pastor.

Dear Mother:-

Morrisburg, Ont. Dec. 14, 1916

As I didn't get around to writing you last night, I will try to drop you a few lines to-day. We are having very cold weather now. Night-before last it was 4° below zero and was considerably colder last night. We had snow Monday night and squalls of it off and on since. There is a depth of four or five inches of snow and some are using cutters but the snow is so dry that it refuses to pack and in such snow the cutters are rightly named. I drove up the river yesterday but took a buggy and I'm sure I made the wisest choice of a vehicle. The whooping cough, rumps and chertops
