

The Promotion Chairman, Mrs. Ernest Schaefer, spoke of the change in the Auxiliary's name which has necessitated the purchase of new stationery with the bell tower symbol. The Promotion Committee and the executive are also compiling a slide presentation that will be available on request for your membership campaign. The University has continued to provide us with the same printing and mailing privileges that we enjoyed in the past for which we are very appreciative.

Dr. Delton J. Glebe gave a slide presentation entitled "Ministries in the Making". This showed pictures of Waterloo Lutheran Seminary from its inception to the present time and of the men who have graduated. Also it covered the area of studies the students receive and the part the Auxiliary has played throughout the history of the Seminary.

Mrs. Wm. Gillespie drew the ladies attention to the opportunity to honour a member of their congregation or community by placing the name of the person to be honoured in the Golden Book of Honour or the Memorial Book. In the past year, 4 names were received for the Golden Book of Honour and 2 for the Memorial Book.

Golden Book of Honour - Rev. A. L. Conrad)	St. John's
Mrs. A. L. Conrad)	Waterloo
- Miss Frieda Smith)	St. Matthew's
- Mrs. Goe. Vogt)	Kitchener

Memorial Book - Mrs. Cynthia Kennard - Hamilton
Mrs. Joseph Yousie - Sebastopol

Mrs. Gillespie also brought greetings from Mrs. Fred Stahlschmidt who is the first president of the Auxiliary.

During the lunch hour, the contact women met with the promotion committee to discuss ways of promoting the Auxiliary in the congregations. They also discussed the proposed constitution and voted unanimously to adopt same with the changes suggested by the Board of Governors. The contact women plan to publicize the constitution at their L.C.W. meetings and also will place a copy of it on the church bulletin board for the information of their church members.

The members were asked to fill in their registration forms and from these it was ascertained that 177 persons attended, representing 32 congregations.

Mr. Alan McLeod, the guest soloist, and his accompanist on the piano, Mrs. Rosalyn Peper, were introduced by Mrs. Harry Greb. Mr. McLeod sang "nostalgic memories in song" from the 1920-1940 era.

Mrs. Fred Herbst, Project Committee Chairman, presented the following projects for 1974 which were approved:
