

of St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

Article II. Object.

Its object shall be to zealously aid the Women's Missionary Society of the Synod and of the General Council in prosecuting the great work at home and abroad by developing the missionary activity of its own members, and of the congregation to which it belongs. This shall be done by discussions at its meetings, by circulating missionary literature, by seeking out devoted women to become missionaries or deaconesses, and if possible by annually conducting an every-member canvass of the congregation for an offering for missions.

Article III. Members.

Any woman may become a member of this Society by signing its Constitution, contributing systematically to its work, and praying for the advancement of its objects.

Article IV. Officers.

The officers shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Literature Chairman, who, together, shall constitute the Executive
