You will all stand. She will then say:

"Mister chancellor, I have great pleasure in presenting those who have successfully completed the studies prescribed, fulfilled all the conditions thereto appointed, and been recommended for degrees and diplomas by the Senate of the university."

The chancellor will stand and say:

The vice-president: academic will say:

"Please be seated."

DOCTORAL, MASTER AND BACHELOR CANDIDATES

As the presenter calls forward the candidates for the degree, the candidates will rise and move to the left of the platform. *"As for you who stand today on the threshold of life, with a long horizon open before you for a long career of usefulness to your native land...
I shall remind you that already many problems rise before you:
problems of race division, of creed differences, of economic conflict, of national duty and national aspiration. Let your aim and purpose, in good report or ill, in victory or defeat, be so to live, so to strive, so to serve as to do your part to raise even higher the standard of life and of living...*

— Sir Wilfrid Laurier
