

LUTHERAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND WATERLOO COLLEGE

WATERLOO, ONTARIO

hall thinks that I haven't enough boys to buy rubbers for he is requested to present himself immediately before me for adoption." Fortunately I had another old pair of rubbers with which I could make shift. Arthur and Robert still continue attending the German Vesper and are becoming quite proficient in German. Yesterday Cuvulus was a few pictures. They are not developed yet, but if they turn out any way good I will send you some samples, perhaps in my next letter. The baby sits up alone and might possibly be walking by this time if she had a chance to get down on the floor. She tries hard to talk, but doesn't articulate very clearly as yet. Arthur is keeping up reading his Testament and is now down to 1 Thessalonians. Herman finished Deuteronomy to-day and penetrated several chapters into Joshua. Marion has resumed her reading also and is somewhere in numbers. Cuvulus is interested at present in library books, principally Indian stories and doesn't devote so much time to Scripture reading, though he and Herman regularly get up their memory verses every Sunday. Little Ellen is as fat as she can be and of such a bright sunny disposition. She is very sympathetic and if any of the children cry she bursts out crying and says the one that is crying made her cry. When she asks for anything and says please and we pay no attention to her she winds up by saying "Father, or mother (as the case may be) I'm asking you!" She can sing all the German hymns and Glorias that Arthur and Robert sing and always gets the words correct. I haven't heard from Pastor Beamon since he was married but notice his marriage mentioned in last week's Lutheran. It seems that he had a Church wedding