

Bonnie said I should tell you she is looking forward to a musical treat next Tuesday evening, the Roschanski-Gilotti concert. I don't know whether I have spelled the names right or not, but the former is a world renowned violinist and the latter a celebrated pianist and student of Lieft Mrs. Balmer of Kitchener is taking her to this musical. Things are moving along nicely at the Seminary. I have collected nearly all the tuition for the 1st Semester $1525 with only about $60 outstanding. The tuition fees this year will run over $3000. So if I don't get more than $2000 salary I get to handle a good deal of money in the course of a year and can't forget at least what it feels like. Bonnie has been after me all winter to get a suit and an overcoat. I can't get both just now, but as overcoats are about half price now, I may buy one when my cheque comes in the end of this month. If I get considerable preaching to do I may be able to get a suit also before long. Well, supper is ready and I will have to stop. With love from us all & you all,
I am

Most Sincerely yours,
Carroll H. Little.
