WATERLOO, ONTARIO

Feb 26, 1925

Dear Mother:

Your very welcome and most interesting letter of the 17th inst was received a few days ago and was highly enjoyed. I will endeavour to answer it tonight, though I will not be able to mail it before to-morrow afternoon as I forgot to get some stamps yesterday and am completely out. But as Corvus wrote you in the middle of the way I suppose a little delay will not matter much. I was glad to know that you were pleased with the Faculty picture I sent you. If you had looked on the card-board in which the picture was wrapped you would have seen the names in regular rotation; but as you didn't do so apparently, I will give them here: From left to right, front row myself, Prof. Zwick, Dr. Hoffmann, Prof. Willison, Prof. Stentel; standing, back row Dr. Delin, Mr. Whitaker (wearing glasses, don't remember the order). Our new building will contain our Assembly Hall. The present Chapel will continue to be used but will be enlarged by taking in the present Assembly Room. Tell Herbert for me that the only way I can account for the fact that Clarence and I have bald heads is that we use our brains. As to wearing a hat to and from the Seminary I thank you for your advice but don't think I will follow it. I haven't worn a hat on that trip since school opened last fall and was never so free from colds as I have been this year. In fact I haven't even had a cold in my head which I attribute to the fact of bordering my head to the weather. The Ministerial Relief is an excellent thing and one of the good features about the U.S.C., only it doesn't pay enough. But perhaps it will reach a higher standard in time. I suppose Corvus told you of our sleet storm. It did a great deal of damage to the trees in Waterloo and Kitchener, shut us off from
