

LUTHERAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY AND WATERLOO COLLEGE

WATERLOO, ONTARIO

Nov. 26, 1927.

Dear Mother:-

Your most welcome and interesting letter was received a few days ago and much enjoyed & was particularly interested in the account of your visit to the old Trinity Church and of your meeting with so many old friends of former days. Glad you had the opportunity to attend this celebration and that you enjoyed it so well. Politically I was also interested in the Democratic success in Cataraugus County and in the elevation of Cousin George Best to the office of sheriff held by his uncle for so many years. I have no doubt Uncle Sam Coulter is rejoicing. He was always such a strong Democrat. Time I wrote you last winter has set in strong. For the last couple days it has been snowing off and on in fine flurries and has been very cold. There is not enough snow as yet for slipping; but yesterday the boys were out tobogganing at the sand pit a good part of the day. After dinner I took Ellen up and we took a few slides down the pit. The boys were up again this afternoon, but I didn't go with them. I took a slight bronchial cold down at Brantford last Sunday from staying in a house where they had no fire on a damp and rainy day and I didn't want to expose myself to taking more cold before fully recovering from this one. Little Ruth has a cold of the same nature but is getting much better and Bonnie also has it. I went down to Kitchener with Mr. Buxton today. I didn't hear their father the Rev. Mr. Orzen. He was away attending a Missionary fest in Toronto and Pastor Duperré, an old Pastor Ernestus of New Hamburg preached. He had a good