

LUTHERAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

AND

WATERLOO COLLEGE

WATERLOO, ONT., .....

Bonnie, I am proud to say, won the prize - a box of chocolates. It was 12 o'clocks again before we broke up. It was a little too much dissipation for one week and breaks to too great extent into the work as well as into the regular hours. However, we all survived and I hope are none the worse for it. I had part of another night taken up with a meeting of the Merger Committee, but as we didn't have a quorum present we soon adjourned. I note what you said about writing for The Lutheran. But my time is too much taken up with what I must do without this work of supererogation for one thing. About all the writing I find time for is that which I am called upon to do for the Canada Lutheran. And besides, being in the Seminary, I am somewhat out of the ecclesiastical current and have no occasion for writing articles for The Lutheran. Prof. William is our official correspondent appointed by the Synod and would probably resent any interference with the prerogatives of his office. And as far as his poetry is concerned he holds the field alone, having no competitors.

Conelus has the making of a great scholar. He is very systematic in his work. I am enclosing you a copy of a plan which he drew up and am sending you this without his knowledge, while he is at Church tonight. It is as follows:

| Plan for Day.                |                        |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------|
| 10 to 8 to 9:15. Prepare for school | 4:55 Paper peddle      |
| 12 to 12:30. Dinner                 | 5:30-6:00 Supper       |
| 12:30 to 10 after 1 practice        | 6:30-7:00 Chapel       |
| 10 after 1 to 7:30 gym.             | 7-8 skating            |
| 1:30-3:30 (or 4) school             | 8-10 (10:30) Home work |
|                                     | Spares (Reading)       |