in St. John's Church the early part of the week. And while I do not belong to this conference, I attended part time. They discussed the divorce question and ended by appointing the Seminary Faculty together with Rev. Mueller of Toronto to prepare Theses for discussion at Synod. I have prepared four short propositions, which I will endeavour to get the Synod to adopt. If it should adopt them it will settle the divorce question forever as far as our Church here in Canada is concerned. I think I can carry it in committee, but am not so sure of the Synod. Dr. Maurer is preaching to-morrow and expects to leave Monday for Chicago where he will visit his son for a couple weeks. Prof. Hirtle still keeps his bed, and it is hard to say when he will get out. Mrs. Maurer is somewhat better and doesn't look too bad. I haven't heard anything more from Chicago concerning my degree, but unless they stand on a technicality I should get it this year. I will probably hear from them this next week. Well, I will have to stop here, as the baby is ready to be put to bed. With love to you all, I am

Most sincerely yours,
